NIGHT SCENE OF THE ALUMNI GYMNASIUM

NIGHT SCENE OF AUBURN HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

In this edition of the "Follies" we have tried to weave a thread of the Old West into our theme. In many ways the various phases of our school activities parallel life on the ranch from the big boss superintendent right down to the "greenhorns and mavericks." By word and art, we have tried to portray our social roundups, our athletic rodeos, our stampedes and daily life along the trail. How well we have succeeded may be a moot question, but we hope you will enjoy our efforts.

The Foremen

MR. E. A. HUSSELMAN has been a member of the Auburn School Board for eight years and is now serving his eighth year as its president. His long duration of membership has proven him to be one of our most capable members. Mr. Husselman has shown through the years a great personal interest in the students. He has shown his ability to solve our problems and help us accomplish our goals.

MR. WILLIAM WEINERT is serving his third term as a member of the Auburn School Board. He has shown his ability as an efficient businessman in our community for many years and is now filling the place of secretary on the board with the same dependability. His interests in school affairs are supplemented by his teen-age daughter who is now attending Auburn High School.

MR. HENRY M. SHOOK, a graduate of Illinois University, will have served on the Auburn School Board for two terms at the end of this year. His interests in our school system have been furthered by his three daughters now attending grade school in this city, and by his wife, who worked in our high school office for a number of years. Having managed his own company efficiently, Mr. Shook is carrying out his office of treasurer in like manner.

The Guides

MR. H. L. McKENNEY. Under the strain of many hours of extra work and worry, Mr. McKenney is given little chance to become fully acquainted with our student body, although he is often seen going to and from his office during the course of the day. His program is a very wide and extensive one, reaching from our own high school to many other schools in the surrounding communities. His congenial nod and dry wit have won him many friends both in A.H.S. and other schools with which he has contact.

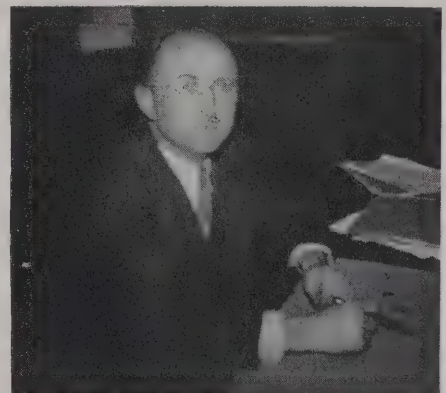

MRS. EMMA REEDER is almost Mr. Miller's third hand. Without her, he undoubtedly would be at a loss. Her efficiency, her ready smile, and her capability have made her both well known and well liked around A.H.S.

MRS. CARMA ECKERT, as Mr. McKenney's very capable receptionist, has saved many a student from an unhappy day at A.H.S. Her congenial personality, her willingness to help, and her pleasing smile have won her many friends in A.H.S.

MR. LLOYD W. MILLER. The leader of A.H.S. with whom the students are most thoroughly acquainted is Mr. Miller. His ever ready smile and willingness to help have relieved many a freshman confused by the rules and customs of A.H.S., as well as many a senior perplexed by college problems and complications that arise in any high school. However, the great respect of the student body, and of his many friends, is proof that his worthwhile efforts are generously rewarded.

The Buckaroos

JERRY GRIFFITH, President

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Group 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; Jr.-Sr. Play 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Lettermen's Club 3, 4; Noon League 1; Gitta Sereny 4; Gitta Sereny Treasurer 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y Treasurer 4; Junior Rotarian 4.

Jerry has very capably led his class for the last two years. His conscientiousness has made him a four-year honor student, and his efficiency will make him successful in his chosen engineering career.

JOHN GARNs, Vice President

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 1, 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 3; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3; Lettermen's Club 3, 4; Gitta Sereny 3, 4; Gitta Sereny President 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y Chaplain 4.

John declares that women are a nuisance, but we have heard certain contradictions to this statement. From all reports, he is happiest when the hunting is good. (Of course, we mean rabbits.) His ideal person is Henry Ford, Jr., and his ambition is to become a successful business tycoon on Wall Street.

CHARLOTTE TREADWELL, Secretary

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 4; Annual Staff 4; School Paper Staff 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 3; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Band Librarian 3; Band Vice President 4; Gitta Sereny 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y President 4.

Charlotte has an interesting hobby—men. Although she ranks high scholastically, she still has time for dates with a certain senior. Charlotte's list of achievements is large, and she is admired by students and teachers alike.

WILLIAM MYERS, Treasurer

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 1, 3, 4; School Paper Staff 4; Football 1, 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2; Lettermen's Club 3, 4; Noon League 1; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

"Wee Willie" was the pepper pot of this year's basketball team. Always in the middle of everything, he is a friend of all. We doubt whether he will ever reach his ambition of being six feet tall.

DIANA MESSENGER, Honor Student

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Group 1, 2, 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; School Paper Staff 2, 3, 4; Paper Editor 3; Librarian 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Cast 3; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; G.A.A. Vice President 3; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y Secretary 4.

Diana has had a very active high school career. Especially outstanding were her dramatic ability in the "Kind Lady" and the effectiveness with which she handled the paper last year. A "Buck" is her favorite entertainment.

JERRY GRIFFITH, Honor Student

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Group 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; Jr.-Sr. Play 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Lettermen's Club 3, 4; Noon League 1; Gitta Sereny 4; Gitta Sereny Treasurer 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y Officer 4; Junior Rotarian 4.

Jerry has accomplished everything that he has set out to do, and we know that, with his present proficiency, he will keep right on winning.

ERIC SCHAAB, Honor Student

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Group 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 1; Annual Staff 4; School Paper Staff 3; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 4; Football 1; Track 1; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

Eric's vivacious personality and parties are well known. He is very capable and has been on the honor roll all four years. As he is humor editor of the annual this year, his jokes are being used to good avail.

LOIS WYNE, Honor Student

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Group 2, 3, 4; Associate Editor of the Follies 4; School Paper Staff 4; Librarian 2; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; G.A.A. Treasurer 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus Sec.-Treas 4; Gitta Sereny 2, 3, 4.

Lois' conscientiousness and thoughtfulness have won for her everyone's friendship. These traits and her dependability assure us that she will be a very successful nurse.

ILENE BALLIET

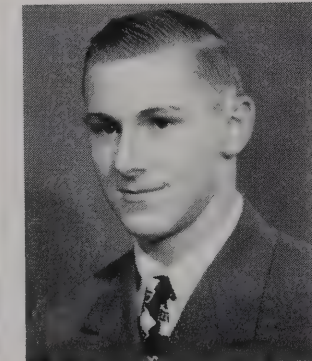

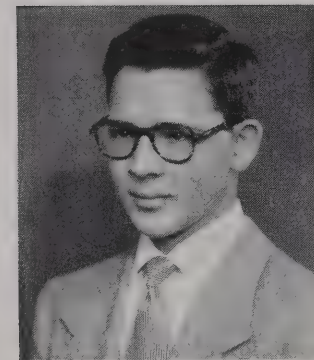

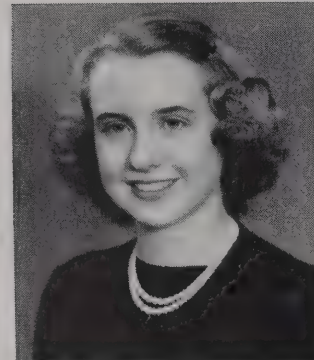

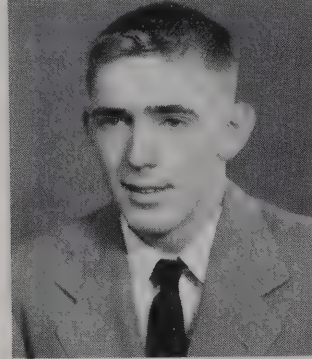

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 2, 4; Librarian 3; Home Ec Club 2, 3, 4; Home Ec. Sec.-Treas. 3, 4; Gitta Sereny 2, 3, 4.

Ilene's determination and commercial knowledge will carry her far along the path in the secretarial field. The Home Ec. Club will certainly miss her next year.

DAVID BARNHART

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3; Track 1, 2.

"Barney" is an outdoor boy and his hobbies are hunting and fishing. He plans to attend Purdue and become an electrical engineer. He thinks the Navy might interrupt his plans for a while.

The Buckaroos

GORDON BAUGHMAN

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Gitta Sereny 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4.

Gordon is one of the scooter brigade. Despite the fact he is quite shy, he packs a wallop with the girls. We imagine that his light brown wavy hair has something to do with it.

DARREL BILLINGS

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 2; Football 1, 2; Track 1, 2; Noon League 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

Darrel is very reserved until he gets with the boys and then—Oh Boy! His executive ability was well displayed his sophomore year when he was class president.

JERRY BLEVINS

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Lettermen's Club 2, 3, 4; Noon League 1, 2.

Despite his many early injuries, "Jab" has come through and been a great asset to this year's basketball team. His favorite pastime is loafing at the canteen. We suspect that this is because of the many girls who hang out there.

PATRICIA BRADY

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; School Paper Staff 3, 4; Librarian 2, 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 3, 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus 1, 2; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Among Pat's pet peeves are people who have no patience with others' faults. Her spare moments are spent reading and writing letters. A certain navy camp is probably involved in this pastime. We are sure that she will realize her ambition of getting something worth while out of life.

JUDITH BROWN

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Librarian 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 3; Jr.-Sr. Play Cast 4; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Judy enjoys dancing and listening to Stan Kenton. She has been an enthusiastic supporter at all football and basketball games. Her desire is to become an airline hostess. Maybe this is because certain boys keep her in the clouds.

STEVEN BUTLER

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. President 4; Class Officer 1; School Paper Staff 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Lettermen's Club 2, 3, 4; Noon League 1; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y Vice President 3; Hi-Y President 4; Junior Rotarian 4.

Steve is one of those boys who are in on everything. He has been popular with everyone, especially the girls. He is equally adept at football, basketball, and track and will certainly be missed in the field of sports.

SHARON COCHRAN

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; School Paper Staff 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus 4; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Sharon has given the A.H.S. a little more lively touch these last four years. "Prox's" great desire is to have long brown hair.

SHIRLEY DELUCENAY

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; School Paper Staff 4; Jr.-Sr. Play 4; Chorus 4; Gitta Sereny 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Shirley is one of the three girls in first period chemistry last year whom Mr. Rose never will forget. Her chemical knowledge and her thoughtfulness will assure her of becoming a good nurse.

CHARLES DERROW

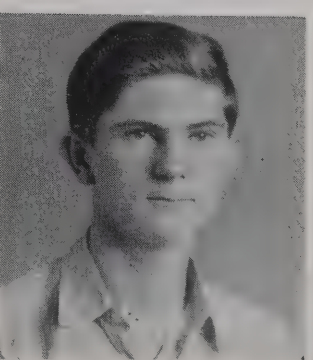

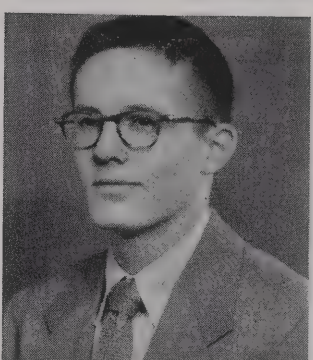

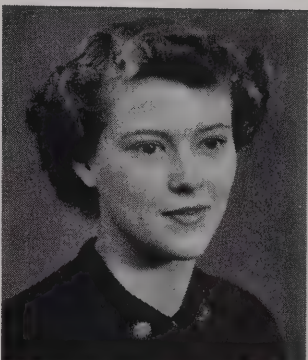

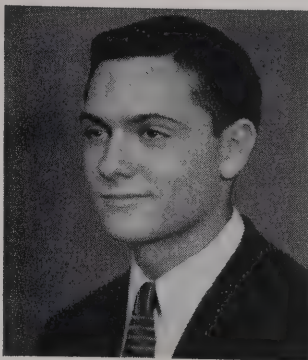

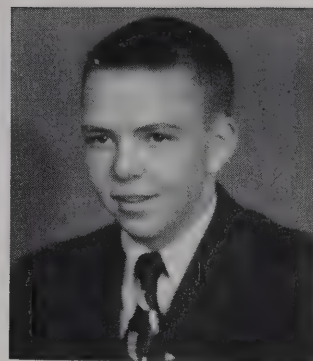

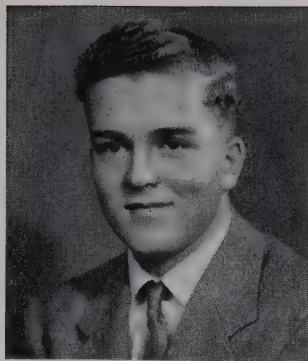

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Lettermen's Club 3, 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

Junior is Auburn's pride and joy as a football player. He has been on several all-conference teams, and this year he was chosen as a guard on one of the all-state teams. He is the outdoor type and enjoys hunting and fishing.

BYRON FAHNESTOCK

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3.

Byron was among seven boys who were drafted into the army combat service in 1943. He has taken the G.E.D. test and will graduate with us this year.

The Buckaroos

DAVID FEAGLER

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; School Paper Staff 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Cast 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Track Manager 4; Lettermen's Club 4; Noon League 1, 2, 3; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Junior Rotarian 4.

David's popularity has been due to his laugh-provoking antics which have sent many a class room into hysterics. His scholastic ability will be a great asset in his study of medicine at Duke University.

DOLORES FOSTER

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; G.A.A. 1, 2; Gitta Sereny 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Dolores owns a beautiful head of red hair and a personality which has won her many friends. Although quiet during class hours, she is always ready for a good time. She hopes to become a beauty operator.

JEANNE FRANK

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; G.A.A. 1, 2; Chorus 2, 3, 4; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Jeanne's ambition, to be well liked by her classmates, has already been accomplished by her cheerful disposition. Her smartly styled clothes are praised by many students. She is happiest when writing to a certain sailor.

PETER FRIBLEY

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Advertising Manager of Annual Staff 4; Jr.-Sr. Play 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Lettermen's Club 4; Noon League 4; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Junior Rotarian 4.

Pete is an enthusiastic ham radio operator. Wherever there has been a political spark in school, Pete has been in the middle of it.

EDWARD GOTSCHALL

A.H.S. 3, 4.

Ed's witty remarks and sly grin will long be remembered by all of us. We regretted to see Ed leave, but our loss was the Navy's gain.

BEVERLY GROGG

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; School Paper Staff 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Band Treasurer 4; Home Ec. Club 1; Home Ec. Secretary-Treasurer 1; Gitta Sereny 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

"Bev's" ready smile and reserved personality have brought her many friends. She has been an ardent member of the band all four years and was treasurer this year. Since she has so much experience with money in high school, Beverly shouldn't have any trouble managing her husband's bank roll.

VIRGINIA GROGG

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; School Paper Staff 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Teen-Y Sec'y 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

"Ginger" has brightened many a dull moment in these last four years. We wish her good luck in her ambition to become a secretary and perhaps to sit on the boss's knee.

CALVIN HAMPSHIRE

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 3; Annual Staff 4; School Paper Staff 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Cast 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball Manager 4; Track 1, 2, 3; Basketball Statistician 3; Lettermen's Club 2, 3, 4; Noon League 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Band Librarian 3; Gitta Sereny 2; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y Vice President 4.

"Buck" has been one of the busiest seniors. Besides his long list of school activities he has been president of the M.Y.F. and Master Councilor in DeMolay. Behind his wit he has a much more serious side than most of us realize.

PAUL HATHAWAY, JR.

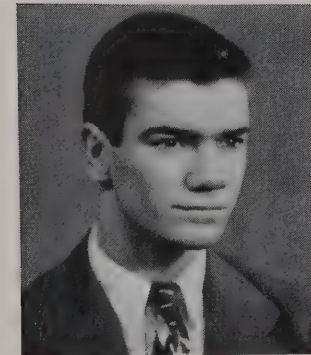

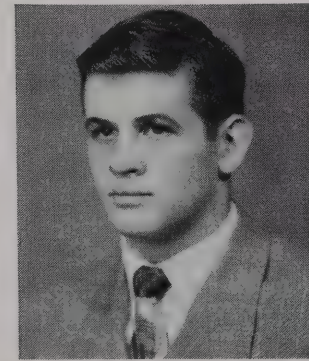

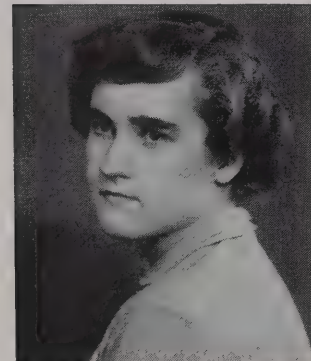

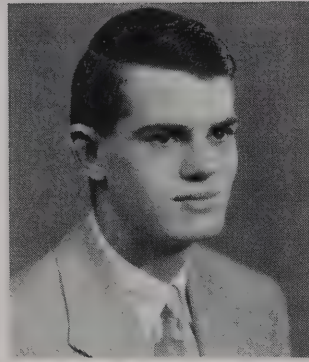

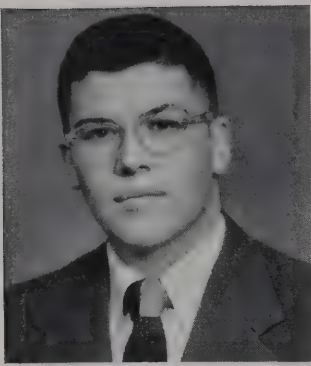

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2; Lettermen's Club 2, 3, 4; Noon League 1; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

Paul has done an outstanding job in representing the class in football and basketball. He is well known for his nightly escapades with the boys. He lists our editor-in-chief as his ideal person.

RITA HELMUTH

A.H.S. 3, 4; A.A.A. 3, 4; School Paper Staff 4; Gitta Sereny 4; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

A newcomer to A.H.S., Rita has made an attractive addition to the halls of A.H.S. In the short time she has been here she has made a place for herself in everything. Her ambition is to live in "sunny California."

The Buckaroos

WALTER KAIL

A.H.S. 1, 2; A.A.A. 1, 2; Football 2.

"Red" left high school to join the infantry. He was one of the most ardent supporters of the 1948-49 basketball team. He presented the school with a knife to cut down future tourney nets.

BARBARA KING

A.H.S. 4; A.A.A. 4; G.A.A. 4; Tri-Hi-Y 4.

Barbara left us after junior high, but returned here in the middle of her senior year. Immediately she fell into the swing of our school activities. We're glad that she came back to graduate with us.

MARGARET KRICK

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; School Paper Staff 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y Vice President 4.

Peggy is a fun loving girl with a mischievous glint in her eyes. She likes to relax and listen to records in her spare time. She is happiest when one of Uncle Sam's defenders is on furlough.

NANCY KRUEGER

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Group 1; Class Officer 3; Editor-in-Chief of the Follies 4; Librarian 3; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

As editor-in-chief of this year's Follies, Nancy has done a swell job. Her quiet unassuming manner will be an asset to the career she has chosen — teaching.

REBECCA LEMISH

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; School Paper Staff 2, 3, 4; Librarian 3, 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Cast 4; Cheer Leader 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Becky" has made lots of friends among both seniors and underclassmen. She has been one of the A.H.S. cheer leaders during the past year. She is very serious about her school work and plans to attend college next fall.

JEANETTE LONG

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Librarian 2, 3, 4; Chorus 4; G.A.A. 2, 3, 4; Gitta Sereny 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Jeanette is very efficient and dependable. She and another girl worked all one Saturday distributing handbills for a tidy sum, which they turned over to the Tri-Hi-Y funds.

DALE MAVIS

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; Basketball 1; Noon League 2; F.F.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; F.F.A. Vice President 4.

Dale has been very active in F.F.A. during his years in A.H.S. He says he's happiest when alone. ("Bologna!") We wish him success in his chosen profession as a veterinarian.

EUGENE MAVIS

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3; Track 1, 2.

Eugene is one of those swell fellows who would do almost anything for you. His spare time is spent in experimenting with radios and television, and he seems to be off to a good start in his career as a radio engineer.

JEAN MAVIS

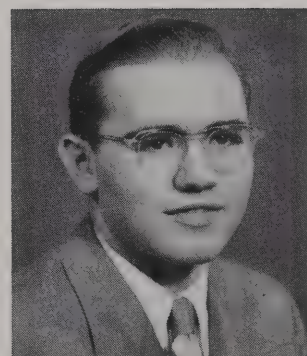

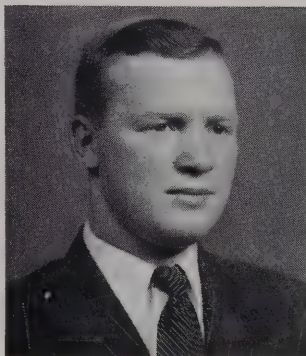

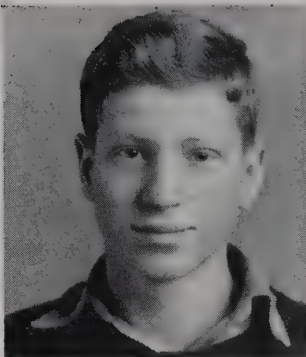

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus Vice President 3; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Jean is cheerful, hard working, and well liked by those who know her. Her lovely voice will be missed from chorus next year. She will make some lucky business man an excellent secretary.

NANCY MESCHBERGER

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Librarian 4; Home Ec. Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Nancy, although seemingly quiet, is always ready for a good time. She has been a very active member of the Home Ec. Club and will make some man a very good wife.

The Buckaroos

CAROLYN MITCHELL

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; School Paper Staff 2, 3, 4; Librarian 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 3, 4; Cheer Leader 1, 2, 4; Lettermen's Club 1, 2, 3, 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Carolyn has proven to us that she can accomplish anything she sets out to do. This is shown by her ability in art and her born talent to lead yells. She has also done a very good job as gossip editor of the paper.

KENNETH ORT

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; F.F.A. 2, 3, 4; F.F.A. Secretary 4.

Kenny is a quiet easy going chap who likes to read. He is happiest when school is out. He probably will be one of DeKalb county's most prosperous farmers some day.

KAREEN OTT

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3; Band 1, 2, 3; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Kareen has been an enthusiastic supporter of our basketball team. With her pleasing smile and sense of humor, there is no doubt that she will be a good teacher.

RICHARD PREDMORE

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Follies Art Editor 4; School Paper Staff 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3; Lettermen's Club 3, 4; Noon League 1, 2, 3; Gitta Sereny 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Junior Rotarian 4.

Dick played end on the football team this year. He is well known for the dance skits that he and Steve put on every year at the Canteen Blackouts.

JIMMIE REYNOLDS

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Business Manager of the Follies 4; School Paper Staff 3, 4; Football Manager 3; Football Statistician 2, 4; Lettermen's Club 3, 4; Noon League 1, 2, 3; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

Jim is very active around school and has made a great success as business manager of this year's Follies. He spends his spare time playing poker and may turn out to be a professional at it.

PATRICIA RHODES

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; School Paper Staff 2, 3; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3.

Pat was one of the seven seniors who received their band sweaters this year. She was always a full-fledged band member and also did a good job on the paper staff.

DAVID RICHARDSON

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Crew 3; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2; Track 1, 3, 4; Lettermen's Club 3, 4; Noon League 1, 2, 3, 4; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Junior Rotarian 4.

"Tick's" happy-go-lucky way of life is envied by many of us. If you are in despair and need a really true friend, "Tick" is always there. His presence keeps any class from being dull.

ROBERT RIDDLE, JR.

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3; Football 3; Lettermen's Club 1, 2, 3; Noon League 1, 2, 3; Hi-Y 3.

Bob's hobby is looking over the town of Garrett. He spends his pastime living up to the name of "Casanova." His favorite comedian is "Tick" Richardson. We were sorry to see Bob's senior year interrupted, but we wish him luck in his ambition to become an instructor in the U. S. Armed Forces.

MARY ALICE SCHOOLEY

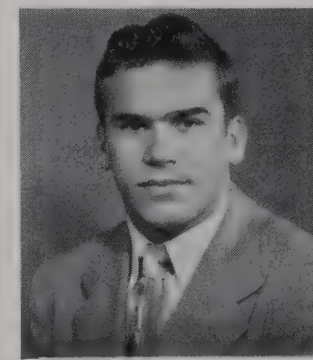

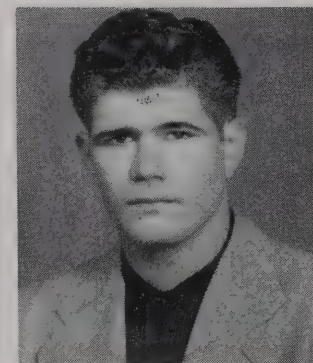

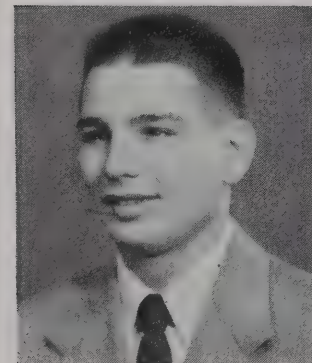

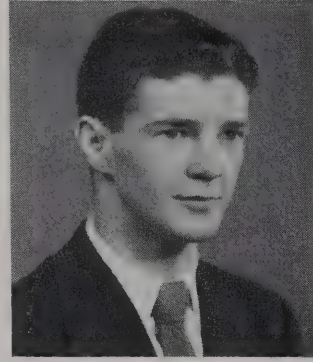

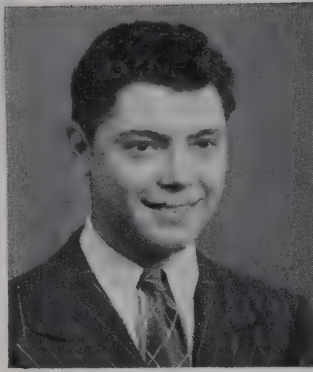

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Group 1, 2, 3; Class Officer 2; Annual Staff 4; School Paper Staff 2, 3, 4; Librarian 2, 3, 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Cast 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; G.A.A. President 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Band Librarian 2; Band Vice President 3; Band President 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus Secretary-Treasurer 1; Chorus President 2; Chorus Librarian 2; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Teen-Y Vice President 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y Sergeant-at-Arms 4.

Mary's winning smile and sparkling personality combined with her many extracurricular activities have made her popular with all. She has been an honor student for three years and we are sure she will accomplish everything she sets out to do.

ROBERT SEIGEL

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Group 1, 2, 3; Annual Staff 4; Jr.-Sr. Play 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Lettermen's Club 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Junior Rotarian 4.

Bob has been one of our star milers on the track team. He also played a guard spot on the basketball squad. "Frog" has played a very important part in our school program.

The Buckaroos

CHARLOTTA SELLEW

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 2; School Paper Staff 3, 4; Paper Editor 4; Librarian 2; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3; Gitta Sereny 1, 2, 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Teen-Y President 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y Treasurer 4.

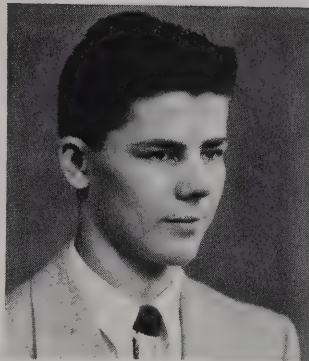

"Char" certainly has been a busy girl during her high school career as witnessed by her numerous activities. She was editor of our school paper in her last year and did a very creditable job. We are sure she will be a success in her chosen career as a journalist.

BARBARA SHAW

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 2, 3, 4; School Paper Staff 3, 4; Jr.-Sr. Play Cast 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3; Chorus Secretary-Treas. 3; Gitta Sereny 3, 4.

"Barb" has always been a favorite among both students and faculty. Her interests lie in the field of music and her spare moments are spent playing the piano. Her ambition is some day to become a radio organist.

JACK SMITH

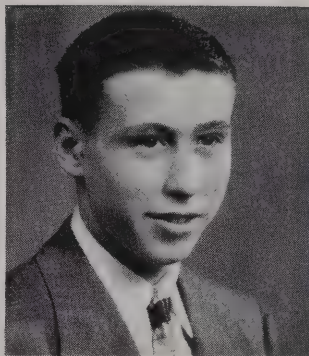

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Noon League 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

Jack is a vital asset on any noon league team. His ear-to-ear grin is widely known. We wish him success in his chosen career as an architect.

RAMONA SMITH

A.H.S. 4.

Ramona was a good addition to our class. Her sincere manner helped to win for her many new friends.

LYLE STEMEN

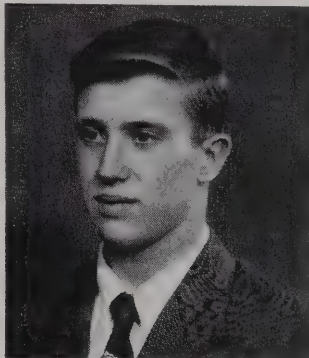

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Lettermen's Club 3, 4; Noon League 1, 2, 3; Gitta Sereny 2; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

Lyle has been a great asset to A.H.S. on the gridiron, hardwood and the cinders. After graduation we're sure he'll make a good leatherneck.

JOAN SWALLEY

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 2; Annual Staff 4; School Paper Staff 3; Librarian 3; Jr.-Sr. Play 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Band Sponsor 4; Gitta Sereny 1, 2; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Joan did a very good job portraying Raymond, the bratty nephew, in the play this year. As our band sponsor, she certainly has kept in step with the times.

JOHN SNYDER

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Photographer of the Follies 4; School Paper Staff 3, 4; Jr.-Sr. Play 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3; Lettermen's Club 4; Noon League 1, 2, 3, 4; F.F.A. 2, 3, 4; F.F.A. President 4; Hi-Y 3, 4.

After looking through the yearbook, you can see what a fine job John has done as annual photographer. By looking at his high school record, we have many reasons to believe John will be a great success.

SHARON SPROTT

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; School Paper Staff 3, 4; Librarian 3, 4; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Sharon is bubbling over with enthusiasm and thus has won many friends. She is always in the middle of any fun making. We wish her luck as she enters the secretarial field.

DARRELL WARNER

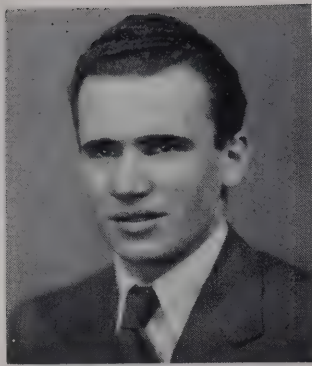

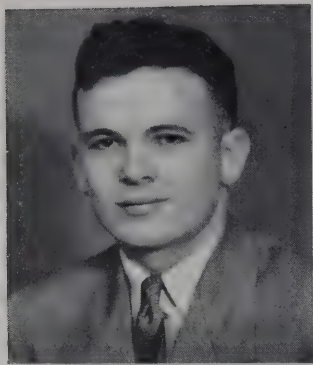

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Librarian 4; Noon League 1, 3; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 3; Gitta Sereny 2, 3, 4.

Darrell is at the height of his ambition when he has a girl on the string. His guitar and scooter offer him plenty of enjoyment in his spare time. He hopes to attend the Jordan Conservatory of Music at Indianapolis.

SARA WINELAND

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus President 4; G.A.A. 1, 2; Teen-Y 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Sara's modest smile has won her popularity around school. Her pleasing manner will cheer many a hospital room when she becomes a nurse.

The Buckaroos

HAROLD WIRTS

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Annual Staff 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Lettermen's Club 2, 3, 4; F.F.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; F.F.A. President 3; F.F.A. Secretary 4

Harold is an all around good fellow. His quietness has won for him the admiration of many. He is one of Zeke's outstanding football players and will be hard to replace. He is one of the vocational editors of this year's annual.

EDUARD WITTMANN

A.H.S. 4; A.A.A. 4; F.F.A. 4; Hi-Y 4.

Our school was greatly honored to have a German exchange student this year. Ed has looks, intelligence, and personality plus—everything a girl could ask for. We wish you could stay with us longer, Ed.

MARILYN WURM

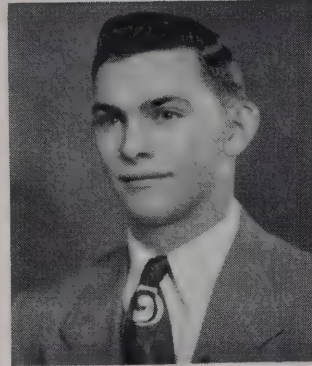

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

Marilyn is a rather quiet girl with a bright smile, and she has won a definite place for herself in Auburn High. We are sure she will attain her goal of being a success in life.

EARL YARBROUGH

A.H.S. 1, 2, 3, 4; A.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 2; Noon League 2, 3, 4.

Life is never dull with "Sunshine" around. His many quips and cracks made him popular through the halls of A.H.S. Earl is almost a duplicate of his ideal person, Red Skelton.

It was but twelve short years ago when our present graduating class in their gay gingham dresses and short trousers gathered their new school books under their arms and started down the long road of knowledge. All of us remember the obstacles along the hard path: the time we had learning to count, the spelling test we flunked, our first spanking, the trouble we had with the apron we made in home economics, the mixture that exploded in chemistry class, and, last but not least, the struggles with senior economics.

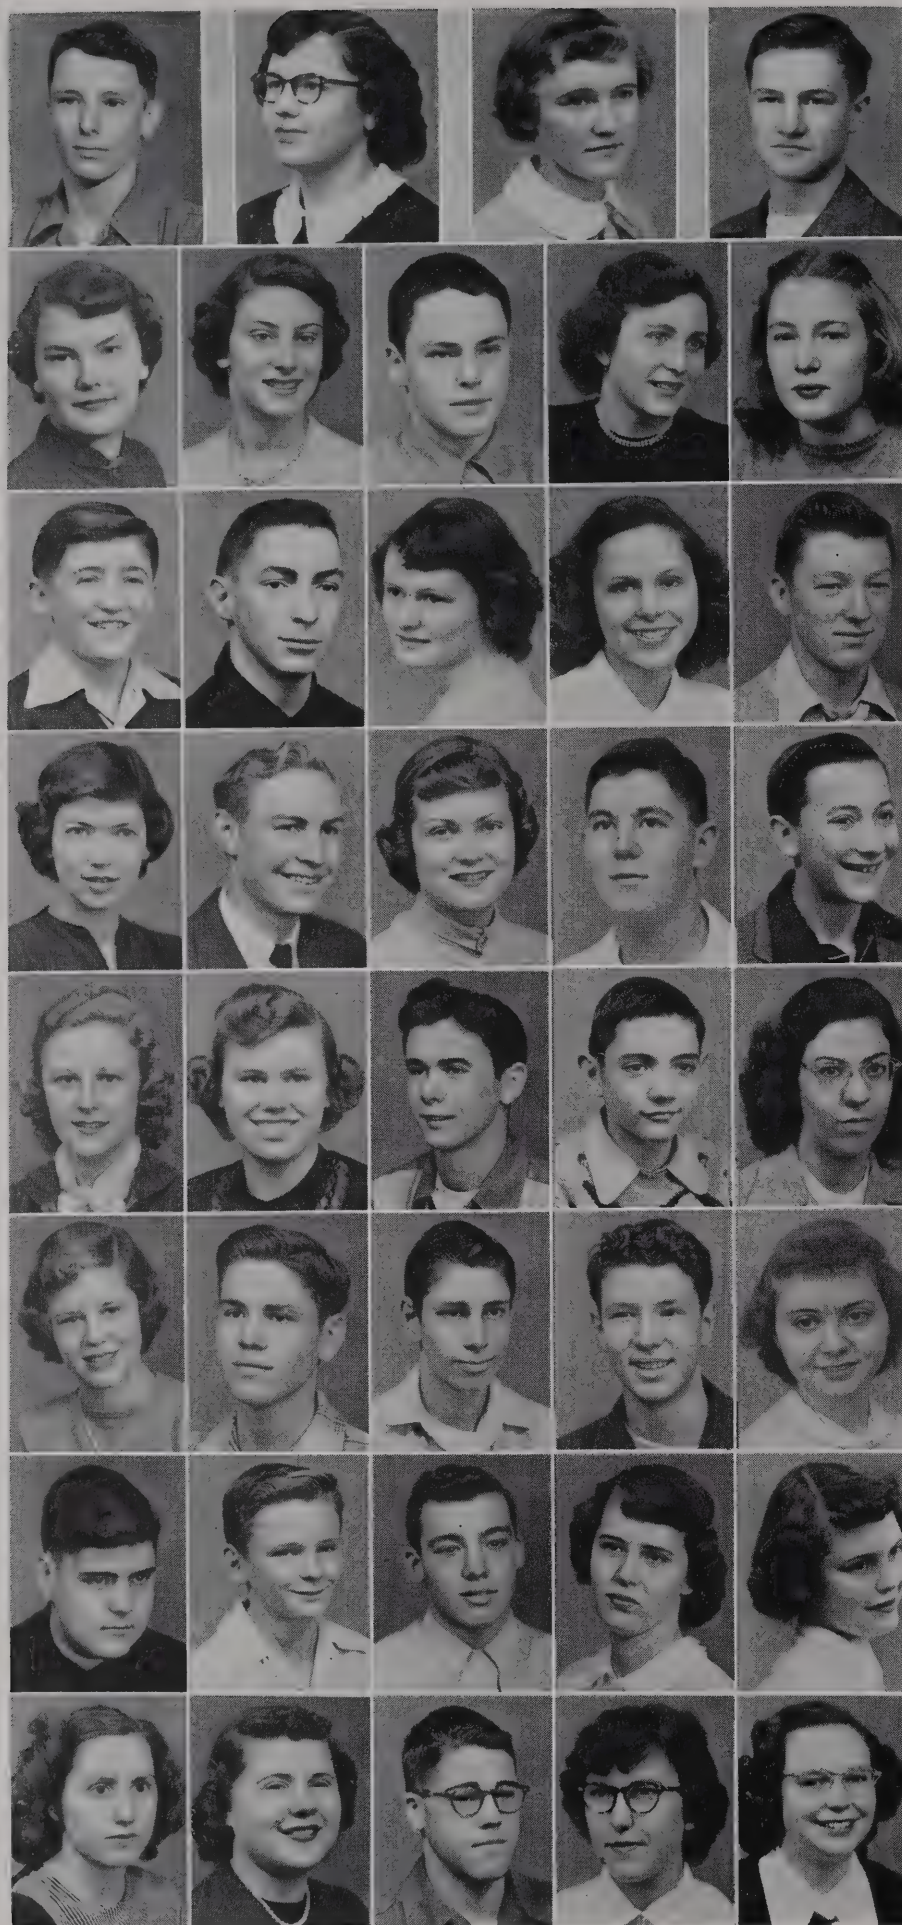

Now at last the day has come when we are to walk up and receive our diplomas. Somehow we wish that we might roll the calendar back to the autumn of '39 when we were beginning our journey down the avenue of learning.

Ahead of us lies a foggy and hazy future. It is up to each one of us to determine whether this diploma we hold is to mark a stopping off place or is to represent the beginning of a newer and fuller life.

The Buckaroos

Although the Greenhorns and the Dudes soon learned the ropes of life around the rodeo, none could surpass the old-time Buckaroos. These experienced cowpunchers were always the leaders in every round-up.

The head cattle herders were Diana Messenger, Jerry Griffith, Eric Schaab, and Lois Wyne.

The Broncobusters who led the class were Jerry Griffith, president; John Garns, vice-president; Charlotte Treadwell, secretary; and Bill Myers, treasurer. Miss Lewerenz, class sponsor, and Mrs. Donald Brown and Mrs. Dale Treadwell, class mothers, helped the Buckaroos to keep things around the rodeo running smoothly.

The top steer wrestlers and bronco riders were Steve Butler, Charles Derrow, David Feagler, Pete Fribley, John Garns, Jerry Griffith, Calvin Hampshire, Paul Hathaway, Dick Predmore, David Richardson, John Snyder, Lyle Stemen, Harold Wirts, Jerry Blevins, Bill Myers, and Bob Seigel.

Carolyn Mitchell and Becky Lemish helped to lead the cheers of the fans on the nights of the big rodeos.

The Dudes

The Dudes got into the swing of being upper classmen right away. It didn't take these city slickers long to learn the knack of steer wrestling and calf roping. Next year they will be right in line to carry on the activities of the big rodeo.

The Dudes were led by Kesler Teter, president; Beverly Blevins, vice-president; Alice Romeiser, secretary; Max Grogg, treasurer. Mr. Lawson, class sponsor, and Mrs. Claire Timberlin and Mrs. Carl Romeiser, the class mothers, assisted the inexperienced city folks in getting on their feet in the new surroundings of the rodeo.

The honor students were Beverly Blevins, Virginia Picker, David Schooley, and Kesler Teter.

The best steer riders and calf ropers were Fred Bauer, Sam Campbell, Don DeCoursey, John Goings, Max Grogg, Cal Grosscup, Dale Kuhlman, David McInturf, David Michael, Dwight Morris, Jack Scott, LaVern Sharp, Hugh Squires, John Stebing, David Timberlin, Art Carper, and Harold Hayden.

The Mavericks

The Mavericks came into the corral kicking with the usual determination not to be branded. Before the year was over, they had been roped and were taking an active part in the life of the arena.

Those who kicked their heels the highest in the athletic field were Eddie Aschliman, Jim Capen, Jack Casselman, Bob Delegrange, Harry Gorrell, Larry Griffith, Bob Hathaway, David Houghton, Don Johnson, John Kleeman, LaVern Knisely, Don Souder, DuWayne Stemen, Kenneth Wolff, Larry Hinschlager, David McGriff, Aubrey Myers, Kenneth Myers, Larry Rank, Tommy Reynolds. On the nights of the big rodeos in the Alumni Arena, Barbara Blevins led the cheering.

The Mavericks' class was led scholastically by Sue Baxter, Sharon Rainier, Sue Richardson, James Capen, and Marsha Minard.

The first to receive their brands were President Jack Covell, Vice-President Bob Delegrange, Secretary Sue Baxter, and Treasurer Don Souder. Sponsor "Zeke" Young, and the class mothers, Mrs. James Capen and Mrs. Wayne Armstrong, were the chief ropers of the young calves.

The Greenhorns

Last fall the Greenhorns entered through the corral gate into the big ranch and made preparation for their four years' stay. They had a lot to discover about the life around the rancho, but they were eager to learn. Before long the older, more experienced ranch hands had taught them all the brands.

The Greenhorns were led by Harry Hoham, president; Brad Webb, vice-president; Doris Bartels, secretary; Ladean Manon, treasurer. Miss Van Deursen, the class sponsor, was assisted by the mothers, Mrs. Franklin Bartels and Mrs. Lloyd Burgoyne.

The most apt pupils of the old timers' lessons were Ruby Helmuth, Barbara Butz, Ladean Manon, Robert Teter, and Beverly Thomas.

The old cowpunchers reported that Richard Brown, William Culbertson, Donner Dean, Gerald Grate, Pete Muzzillo, Richard Quinn, Harvey Penland, Jim Shaw, Dennis Steffen, Bradford Webb, Harold Winebrenner, Lee Dean, and Lloyd Grimm were the best athletes of the class.

AIR VIEW OF AUBURN HIGH SCHOOL

SEPTEMBER

5—Simmer down. We have only 9 months, or 36 weeks, or 180 days, or 1,125 hours, or 67,500 minutes, or 4,050,000 seconds of school left this year!

The juniors wasted no time "rounding up their herd" to elect officers after school today. They "branded" Kesler Teter, president; Beverly Blevins, vice-president; Alice Romeiser, secretary, Max Grogg, treasurer; Mr. Lawson sponsor; and Mrs. Timberlin and Mrs. Romeiser, class mothers.

The song birds of A.H.S. elected their officers today, too. They are: president, Sara Wineland; vice-president, Jeanne Frank; secretary-treasurer, Lois Wyne; librarian, Mary Alice Schooley.

8—Go get 'um, Red Devils, go get 'um! — and the A.H.S. eleven did just that in their first game of the season. Auburn 27, Decatur 6.

11—The Auburn Athletic Association elected Steve Butler as president and Mary Alice Schooley as secretary.

13—The seniors "lassoed" Jerry Griffith as president again today and John Garns as vice-president; Charlotte Treadwell, secretary; Bill Myers, treasurer; Miss Lewerenz, sponsor; Mrs. Treadwell and Mrs. Brown, class mothers.

14—The seniors did some more electing this morning. Nine boys were selected to be this year's Junior Rotarians.

15—Temperatures and blood pressure suffered as Auburn squeezed out a 12-6 victory over New Haven.

18—The sophomores picked class officers today. They are: president, Jack Covell; vice-president, Bob Delegrange; secretary, Sue Baxter; treasurer, Don Souder; sponsor, Mr. Young; class mothers, Mrs. Capen and Mrs. Armstrong.

19—The G.A.A. girls had an "indoor wiener roast" to-night in the home economics room and played lots of "kid games" in the little gym later. A really different party!

22—Ouch! Bluffton 12, Auburn 9.

26—The "frosh" finally got around to electing their officers this morning. They chose Harry Hoham as president; "Butch" Webb, vice-president; Doris Bartels, secretary; Ladean Manon, treasurer; Miss Van Deursen, sponsor; Mrs. Bartels and Mrs. Burgoyne, class mothers.

27—A-U-B-U-R-N! Cheer leader election today in the big gym. Carolyn Mitchell, Becky Lemish, and Barbara Blevins came out on top.

29—First pep session this afternoon. We yelled hard. BUT — Well, it was a tough one to lose tonight. Hartford City 14, Auburn 12.

OCTOBER

1—The Tri-Hi-Y officers journeyed yesterday to Camp Tecumseh near Delphi, Indiana, for the annual two-day State Older Girls' Conference.

3—"No, no, I didn't say you were stuffed. I asked if you had an overstuffed chair we could borrow for the junior-senior play. Rehearsals start today."

Tri-Hi-Y, Hi-Y, and Teen-Y officers attended the District Officers' Conference at Garrett after school tonight.

For a while we thought history was going to repeat itself tonight at the end of the third quarter when the score was tied 13-13, last year's final score. But Auburn came through against Concordia in a rough game 25-19.

5—Picked the Follies staff today "to have and to put up with" until the annual is edited.

7—The F.H.A. girls attended their northeast district fall meeting today. The theme was "Building the Home of Tomorrow."

9—Canteen membership drive starts today, you know!

12—Auburn "B" team wins over Hicksville "B" team 19-6 at Auburn.

13—Pep session plus at 1:30 today—more noise!

The Auburn eleven came out top men on the totem pole tonight. Auburn 21, Columbia City 13.

14—Have you seen any dominoes wandering around A.H.S.? Don't worry. Your eyes are all right; it's just the girls in the specialty number for the band contest at Warsaw tonight.

16—Auburn "B" 19, Hicksville "B" 0 at Hicksville.

The Tri-Hi-Y and Teen-Y girls "tripped the light fantastic" with their dates tonight at the little gym.

17—Start shelling out your silver again; annual sales start today.

18—"Clinic, you say? Are you sick?"

"No, silly, the basketball rules clinic meets tonight at Garrett." Yes, all the lowdown came out on the Indiana madness tonight—including the one-date-a-week schedule for the Red Devils. What a blow!

A party for the paint brush pushers (the stage crew) tonight at Miss Winterfeldt's. Fun, what?

19—Basketball practice started today.

20—Mr. Davis just reported that after today's extensive picture-taking campaign, his cameras are still intact.

The Auburn Devils went on a hunting expedition and bagged 11 Warsaw Tigers tonight. Auburn 27, Warsaw 0.

25—What a pep session! Garrett doesn't have a chance. Will we ever forget the crazy act our boys put on today? Such "talent!"

What a night! The stars shone bright, the moon was white and we beat Garrett 54-12. We also won a half share in the N.E.I.C. title.

26-28—"Don't fence me in"—We've got two days to roam while the teachers are being corralled for the annual Teachers' Association meeting.

27—One last victory to remember a wonderful football season. It was a long trip to Royerton, but we managed to bring home a 25-6 win.

28—Out of eight cash prizes Diana Messenger, David Feagler, Lois Wyne, and Eric Schaab walked off with first, third, and two honorable mention prizes in an essay contest sponsored by the People's Savings and Loan Assn.

30—"When the frost in on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock," and Prof. Davis here is gettin' Orphan Annie out o' hock. Riley really came to life in our first assembly program of the year.

NOVEMBER

1—Hats off to the graduates of '50! We just received word that 30 out of 57 are in institutions—of higher learning, that is.

2—The seniors voted on the color of their graduation gowns this morning. For some odd reason 60 out of 58 seniors voted for navy blue gowns!

The All-Conference football team was announced to-night. Buck Hampshire and Charles Derrrow made the first team; Cal Grosscup, Harold Wirts, and Paul Hathaway the second; and Steve Butler, John Garns, and Jerry Griffith received honorable mention.

2-3—Miss Lewerenz and her cast and Miss Winterfeldt and her crew made for two very enjoyable evenings as they presented "George Washington Slept Here."

Ham for the "hams" after the final performance of "George" up at Messenger's party.

4—Auburn band marches in the torchlight parade tonight.

6—The senior civics class, under the direction of Mr. Weathers, is campaigning vigorously to bring in the vote at the polls tomorrow. Their sound car is going out tonight to tour the town.

7—Steve Butler, our A.A.A. president, received the N.E.I.C. trophy in an assembly this morning.

Election day. The Republicans with their platform advocating two "A's" on every grade card scored a smashing victory over the Democrats and their promise of a Hi-Y party every month. (Prohibitionists—no comment.)

9—"Masques on Parade" this morning! Hollywood has come to Auburn in the form of masks worn by Fred and Ann Carroll.

Well, we see we'll be broke again — season tickets to buy.

10—The Hi-Y boys threw their annual party tonight.

13—A nice big smile, boys! The first team got "shot" today. Noon League started this noon, though it seems some of the boys are still trying to play football.

16—The senior football boys received their silver footballs this morning.

Two Red Devil football players broke into the all-state line-ups tonight with Cal Grosscup as end on the third string, and Buck Hampshire, honorable mention in the center position. Needless to say, we're proud of 'em!

17—Auburn High School really warmed the gym today in the first basketball pep session of the season.

Click—Click—Click—Yes, you guessed it—the scorer was really busy pushing that button for Auburn tonight in the first game of the season! The gym was packed to the rafters as Auburn drubbed Ashley 71-55. Our big boys really look good!

18—The G.A.A. kept up Auburn's athletic tradition as they came through again in the volleyball play day tournament today — we won!

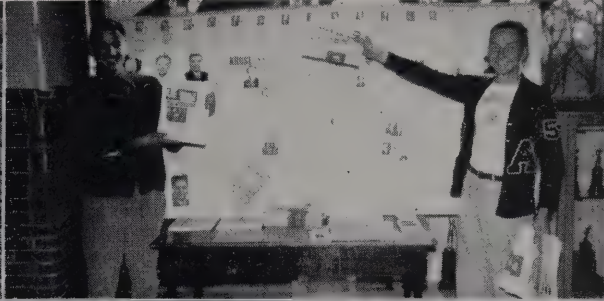

We really blew those Windmills down tonight, and on their own floor, too. Auburn 64, Butler 43.

23-27—The turkey lost and we gained.

24—A big Band Booster supper tonight in the Chamber of Commerce Building.

We met some real height tonight in the Concordia Cadets, but that didn't bother us! Bill Myers practically rode on their shoulders while our big boys piled up the points to the tune of 65-35.

27—The Misses Butler, Wood, Lewerenz, Daggy, and Van Deursen didn't make it back to school today. Their excuse: they were snowbound. Too bad! Perhaps this is a chance to give THEM a 3% deduction.

28—The faculty just announced the selections for editor and business manager for the '52 annual, to wit: Virginia Picker and Art Carper.

30—Dale Mavis can really raise corn! (NOT a pun, thank you!). In fact, he can raise more per acre than anyone in A.H.S. He received recognition for his summer work at a K'ville F.F.A. banquet.

DECEMBER

1—The South Side Archers hit as many bull's eyes as we did tonight, but their fouling tripped them up. Auburn 54, South Side 48.

2—Teen-Y bake sale at Burgoyne's today.

4—The footballers and their coaches were honored tonight by the Rotary. The food was swell, and the speaker, Coach Robert Harmon of Garrett, gave an interesting talk on the history of football.

5—The annual Christmas musical of A.H.S. was quite a success financially as well as musically as they netted much needed capital.

6—THE time is not too far off—the seniors ordered their announcements today.

8—The juniors are ending their Christmas card business today, and with a nice little profit, we understand!

Annual meeting today. We were warned we must get copy in! (No time for comment.)

We won't say TOO much about this game because it wasn't basketball. It was just a game of who could hold the ball the longest and still make a few points on the side. New Haven 21, Auburn 17.

9—Tri-Hi-Y sale today at Schaab's store.

Some days you just can't make a nickel, no matter how hard you work—and we really fought tonight! North Side won 44-43.

11—The senior wills you read in this fair book were written on this fateful day. Some of them are pips!

12—The frosh held their class party tonight. They really know how to get good entertainment—even if the pop froze!

13—The "mayor of the town" spoke to the civics classes today on government. (Not Lionel Barrymore, silly! Hal Hoham, of course!)

14—Teachers have parties, too, and good ones at that! This evening they had their Christmas party at the Auburn Hotel. Entertainment galore!

15—Quite a pep session today. We'll murder "da bums."

You said it! We really uncoupled the caboose of the Railroader five tonight. Paul Hathaway returned to action after being out since the first game. We've missed him! The final score was Auburn 69, Garrett 43.

18—"O, Come All Ye Faithful" and all the other carols echoed through the Auburn streets tonight as the Teen-Y gals brought their Christmas cheer to our fair city.

19—The freshmen and sophomores and a few newcomers in the junior and senior classes took I. Q. tests today.

20—Parties, parties, parties — The G.A.A. girls had their Christmas party tonight at Becky Lemish's.

21—The speech class, the band, and the chorus presented their annual Christmas program this evening before a good sized audience. Afterward the band held a party for all band tooters and their alumni. Great fun!

G.A.A. and the Gitta Sereny had their group pictures taken this morning.

The Christmas program was repeated today for the student body—and then, ah, can you believe it? Eleven whole mornings to sleep! Or shall we put it another way? Eleven whole mornings to have fun!

Auburn received a nice Christmas present tonight at Hartford City. The card said "Auburn 61, Hartford City 54."

25—We've thought and thought of things to say to you.

We've narrowed it down to a very, very few,

But the best we could find, when all's said and done, Is "Merry Christmas!" Yes, it's the VERY best one.

27—"A Winter's Tale" of a Winter Garden — just ask anyone who went to that dreamy Christmas formal tonight to tell the "Tale" to you!

JANUARY

1—Holiday Tourney this afternoon and tonight. Auburn came through in the first game of the afternoon against K'ville 56-52; second game Nappanee won over Angola. At night in the consolation game the K'ville Comets streaked ahead to win over Angola 65-27, and Nappanee took home the trophy with the 48-46 score in its favor.

5—Tonight the Red Devils finally out-buzzed those stubborn Hornets at Angola with a 43-35 win.

6—The big Elkhart Blue Blazers came a long way to Auburn—just to go home again—much the worse for wear and on the short end of a 51-49 score.

11—The A.H.S. senior art students will soon have their chance to compete in a contest sponsored by the Indiana-Michigan-Ohio Art Alliance.

The G.A.A. girls served sandwiches to the Auburn Chamber of Commerce this evening.

12—Evidently Kendallville was out for our blood tonight after the Holiday Tourney, but WHY did it have to be a conference game? 38-37. Oh!

13—The Auburn Imps almost brought home the Logansport Invitational Tourney crown tonight. The Logansport reserves won by only three points, 36-33.

14—Auburn seems to have a poet in its midst. Diana Messenger's poem "The Passing Seasons" will be published in the "National Anthology of High School Poetry."

19—Shortened periods this afternoon—a pep session at 3:30 was the cause. "Randy" gave us the book on yelling for the team! Don't worry, we will!

Those Warsaw Tigers didn't get to chew us up tonight. In fact, we put the bite on them for a 65-55 win.

18—Jack Scott joined the Paratroopers today. He is the first junior to join the armed forces this year.

G.A.A. basketball tourney starts today.

26—The Red Devils won tonight against Decatur, 67-54. It was a tough one, though, for Jerry Blevins dislocated his shoulder and won't be able to play any more basketball.

27—Auburn clubbed the Mishawaka Cavemen tonight for the first time since they've been on the A.H.S. schedule—bliss! What a game! 49-47.

FEBRUARY

2—Auburn rolled up a 71-37 win over the Columbia City Eagles tonight in the Alumni Gym.

3—The Central Tigers chewed their way through our defense for a 54-48 win tonight. This calls for revenge!

5-10—These days mark the drive for funds for our new band uniforms.

5—The underclass annual honor roll was announced today—good work, kids! Tonight was the night of the Teen-Y - Tri-Hi-Y Valentine dance in the little gym. The gals really had a swell party for their dates!

7—Barbara King's team came out on top in the G.A.A. basketball tourney with five wins and one tie today.

9—Today was a Red Letter Day on the calendar in more ways than one. Very early this morning 37 seniors from the civics classes and Mr. Weathers set out on a bus tour of Indiana state institutions and other places of interest. Only the "lucky 37" can appreciate Ed Wittmann's remark on the trip home—"On the Rhine it was never like this!"

The Wabash Apaches were swept off their warpath by the Auburn Red Devils in a 49-45 win for Auburn tonight at Wabash. Sweet victory!

12—Mr. Weathers, Ed Wittmann, and Nelson Lung presented a short, but inspiring Lincoln Day program over the p. a. system this afternoon.

K'ville is always out after us for some reason or another. This time it was to revenge a previous defeat by our G.A.A. volleyball team over theirs. Tonight they did just that. Our girls lost both games this time.

14—The seniors, in a class meeting this morning, presented Ed Wittmann with a "51" class ring.

Notice anything new when you sailed into the assembly this morning? Yep, two bright new flags, one an American flag, the other a U. N. flag made by the home ec. girls.

15—The tourney drawing for who-plays-whom (English teachers, please note!) today. We play at Garrett.

16—Wha' hoppin'd? Auburn was downed by Bluffton tonight at Bluffton, 48-44.

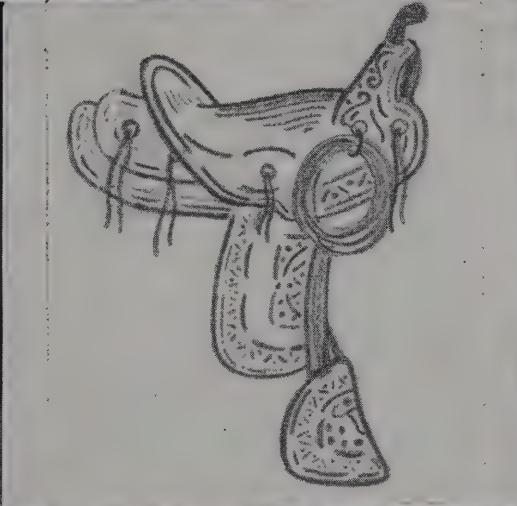

17—We students had a preview this morning of how Auburn will be represented at the District solo and ensemble contest tomorrow.

19—Auburn music students really made a fine showing at the contest today. In fact, seven of them have earned the opportunity to go to the state contest.

20—A send-off pep session for the tourney tomorrow. With Steve Butler's jokes(?) and the yell leaders' pep, how can we miss?

21—Auburn survived this first day of sectional play in fine shape. Auburn won over Ashley in the second game, 94-50 (bet this is some sort of record in tourney play!), and Auburn took the night game from Fremont by 50-37.

22—Tickets for Saturday's game on sale today!

23—Another pep session for the boys today—good luck!

Auburn rolled over Orland this afternoon in an 83-38 win and won the title game from Spencerville by a 61-43 score. Central Tigers, here we come!

26—We find that Auburn is the highest scoring sectional winner in the state. Are we proud!

28—Our band uniforms were finally ordered today. Persistence did the trick!

MARCH

2—Medals, medals! We were dazzled by all the medals received this morning by our band students for their participation in the district solo and ensemble contest. Sue Zook, Jean Mavis, Sue Richardson, Ann Nugen, Barbara Link, Sharon Smith, and Mary Alice Schooley will go to the state contest.

Pep session at 3:30 today. Steve Butler, as president of the Athletic Association, promised that we'd play in the night game Saturday.

3—Today is the Regional at Fort Wayne. The Red Devils tamed and trimmed the Central Tigers in the first game, 50-45. Decatur beat Kendallville in the second game, AND Auburn beat Decatur 76-61 in the night game to win our third straight regional!

5—An assembly this morning was called to announce the 10 per cent honor roll of last semester in the four classes. Nice going!

6—We have some stars in our midst—at least, so the coaches and principals of the N.E.I.C. think. Cal Grosscup was in first place on the first team, and Bill Myers and Steve Butler took two of the places on the second squad.

7—The first committee meeting for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet occurred this morning. It's not far away, kids!

8—The Red Devils traveled down Kokomo way today to practice for Saturday's game.

10—Our boys "shined" like never before this afternoon at Kokomo against the Marion Giants. They took the game by a 57-41 score. We played hard ball, and at night we were just plain tired. Muncie Central won 53-39, but we're not complaining. No other team has given us the playing we have seen THIS season, and Auburn DID stop Marion to avenge last year's defeat!

13—The seniors made plans for a party at the Country Club April 19, and, in a class meeting this morning, they chose Rev. Miles Freeman as the Baccalaureate speaker.

14—The combination of the Auburn band and the movie of "The Magnificent Yankee" was quite a box office success tonight at the Court Theater.

15—The Indianapolis Star, the Indianapolis News, the News-Sentinel, and the Journal-Gazette picked their all-tourney first teams. The Auburn five made quite a showing on all of them!

17—The team, coaches, principal, and manager took off for Indianapolis today to view the state tourney and to see Muncie Central come out tops. It takes the state champs to beat us, doesn't it?

Today was also the state solo and ensemble contest at Indianapolis. Four girls received superior ratings: Sue Zook, Sue Richardson, Ann Nugen, and Mary Alice Schooley. Others also received high awards.

19—The Dutton Concert marimba trio gave us a wonderful assembly program this morning.

What a dinner! Dee's Feed tonight for the basketball boys, coaches, principal, and manager was tops.

22-27—Respite! Easter vacation was never so welcome!

28—In an assembly at the big gym this morning, the band gave us a preview of the numbers it is going to play at the state band contest next Saturday.

Junior Town Meeting, come to order! Who is responsible for juvenile delinquency—the school, government, church, or home? WOWO held its meeting here this afternoon with two speakers from A.H.S., Robert Seigel and Peter Fibley, and two girls from Celina High School in Ohio. Calvin Hampshire opened the program. The talks were good and the discussion afterward lively. We like to hear ourselves on the radiol (We can this Saturday — by transcription!)

31—Auburn's band took a third rating at New Haven.

APRIL

1—Hobart, the band capital, brings its colossus to Auburn today.

2—Tonight Rotary royally entertained our basketball boys, coaches, principal, and managers with dinner and an excellent speaker, Mr. Gyer from Findlay, Ohio.

3—Attention, prospective nurses! The Home Ec. Club is holding open forum on nursing tonight. Mrs. G. A. Kellberg is the speaker. Time, 7:30. Place Auburn High School. Come one, come all! (This is a free advertisement!)

4—The Hi-Y held another shindig tonight. We think everyone had lots of fun, too!

5-7—These days were really marked with red letters by the ag. department. Max Grogg and LaVern Sharp, as the official delegates, as well as John Snyder and Dale Mavis, were sent to the F.F.A. State Convention at Purdue. John Snyder, Dale Mavis, and Max Grogg received the Hoosier Farm Degree given only to the very best F.F.A. members in the state. John Snyder also was elected vice-president of agricultural district 3 in Indiana.

6—The annual Spring Concert seemed better tonight than it has in past years (and that's saying a lot).

14—Auburn's track team started the season today with an easy 76½ to 32½ victory over the K'ville Comets.

17—The Concordia Cadets went down to defeat at the hands, or should we say the feet, of the Red Devils, 77-40. Canteen show tonight, terrific as usual—no, MORE terrific.

19—Smack, smack—very good! Hi-Y "Sandwich Day." Auburn scored again today. Butler was our victim. It was mighty close, though—57-52.

Rainbows in April for the senior party tonight at the country club. T'was the last of the "memorable" parties of the class of '51. Hard to believe!

20—The songsters gave their spring recital tonight.

21—Goshen Relays. Barney Beers set a new broad jump record to pace the Auburn thinlyclads to third place, just 8 points away from first place.

24—The G.A.A. held its annual banquet tonight. The retiring officers provided the entertainment, with the main order of business being the awarding of the "Outstanding Athlete of the Year" award to Mary Alice Schooley, the "sportsmanship trophy" to Lois Wyne, and the "Freshman Athlete of the Year" award to Doris Bartels. The new officers were also installed.

27—The frosh held another party! We guess a little green is wearing off by now!

MAY

1—Auburn took second place in the conference track meet at Columbia City. The Eagles soared to a 56½ tally, leaving the Red Devils with 46½.

4—This afternoon Janet Yoquelet took her "decorators" to Pokagon. Everything's ready for the "May Merriment" tonight.

5—Whee, are we tired! But we just have to tell you about last night's Junior-Senior Banquet. Virginia Smith provided the entertainment with her pantomime act; the food was delicious; the girls and the decorations were all beautiful. In fact (yawn) — Oh, we've said enough. You know how wonderful it was!

8—Home Economics Banquet tonight at the hotel. The girls not only had fine entertainment and good food, but they also had a very interesting moving picture.

The lettermen and their dads were entertained at the annual banquet by the Moose lodge.

12—Sectional track meet. Auburn's glory centered around Michael's first place in the pole vault, Refner's third in the 440-yard run, Blevins' fourth in high hurdles.

17—The seniors' graduation day is near.

Practice for commencement makes it clear.

18—Yes, today, senior week begins.

20—At the regional, Dave Michael took third place in the pole vault. Congratulations, Dave.

The seniors donned their caps and gowns for a "trial run" at the Baccalaureate service this afternoon, given by Rev. Miles Freeman in the Methodist Church.

23—As this night approached, we seniors were not so sure we wanted to leave high school. But here we are, diplomas in hand, and the words of William E. Skadden, our commencement speaker, still with us. Wish us luck!

24—The last classes of this school year were conducted(?) today — tomorrow, THE grade cards.

30—The band marched in the formal opening of West Sweney Park today.

Editorial

In September of 1947, seventy-four freshmen enrolled in the Auburn High School. After four years of patient instruction under competent supervision, we find ourselves the senior class of 1951.

The past four years have presented many problems to each of us, and many more will confront us in the future. Regardless of whether we continue our education in higher institutions of learning or enter occupational fields of our choosing, we are better prepared to qualify for either alternative by our training of the past four years. We extend our sincere thanks to the A.H.S. faculty.

Since late October the annual staff has worked many long hours to bring you an interesting résumé of all high school activities for the 1950-51 school year. It is with great pride we present the "Follies of 1951." At times the task looked frightening, but with full support of our sponsors, our advertisers, our engraver, our printer, and the untiring efforts of the staff, we were always able to solve our problems. Now our work is done, and the annual has been completed. It has been a pleasant experience for the staff, and we hope it will bring back pleasant memories to you in the future.

— Nancy Krueger.

Tri-Hi-Y

Tri-Hi-Y is made up of 60 junior and senior girls, and holds its meetings every other Wednesday of each month.

The officers for this year were: Charlotte Treadwell, president; Peggy Krick, vice-president; Diana Messenger, secretary; Charlotta Sellew, treasurer; and Mary Alice Schooley, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Van Deursen, the sponsor, was a great help in solving many of the club's problems.

Tri-Hi-Y sponsored a joint dance on February 5, with the Teen-Y with Valentine's Day as the theme. It also had two joint meetings with the sophomore and freshmen girls. The final meeting was conducted by the newly elected officers on May 9.

On October 7 and 8, Charlotte Treadwell, Charlotta Sellew, Peggy Krick, Mary Alice Schooley, Carolyn Mitchell, Becky Lemish, Shirley DeLucenay, and Carole Carmer, accompanied by Mrs. Dale Treadwell and Mrs. John Krick, attended the Older Girls' Conference at Camp Tecumseh.

Tri-Hi-Y, as in the past, again had a very successful year and provided many activities for its members.

First row: Miss Van Deursen, S. Delucenay, M. Schooley, C. Mitchell, C. Sellew, C. Treadwell, M. Krick, D. Messenger, R. Lemish, Mrs. Holdeman.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y club consists of sophomore, junior, and senior boys. It holds its meetings every first and third Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

On November 12-18 this club sent Darrell Billings, Dave Richardson, Carl Murray, Ed Wittmann, Dave Timberlin, Dale Kuhlman, and Fred Bauer as representatives to the Older Boys' Conference at Elkhart. These boys heard some very interesting discussions on "Practical Thinking About Drinking," "World Citizenship," and "Choosing a Life Mate."

The members of the Hi-Y elected very capable officers for the year. They chose Steve Butler, president; Cal Grosscup, vice-president; Jerry Griffith, treasurer; Bill Myers, secretary; and John Garns, chaplain.

On April 4, the boys entertained their dates at the annual Hi-Y dance. Calvin Grosscup and Dave Schwartz acted as chairmen.

May 2 was the last meeting of Hi-Y for the year. The installation of new officers and the farewell to seniors were the high lights of the meeting.

The Future Homemakers of America

The national creed of F.H.A. shows just what the club stands for and believes in: To make the future home of America happy and prosperous.

The distinguishing colors of the F.H.A. are red and white. The red rose, symbolic of vibrant, glowing health, is the club flower. The club's motto is "Forward New Horizons." This motto expresses the purpose of the organization—learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow.

The second national F.H.A. convention was held in Kansas City from June 26-30. Betty Lou Campbell was one of the 48 girls from Indiana to attend the convention. Miss Butler also attended.

During National F.H.A. Week, November 12-18, the club sent packages to the World Christmas Festival, attended St. Mark's Lutheran church in a body, and decorated an Auburn store window giving the club's creed, purpose, and motto.

For the Christmas program Edward Wittmann told how Christmas was celebrated in his country, Germany.

In January the club enjoyed a Chili supper which was partially paid for by each girl paying the price of her shoe size. The February meeting was a Valentine tea for the mothers of the club members.

In the last two years the club sold enough candy, ice cream bars, and plastic towels to buy a new automatic washer and dryer.

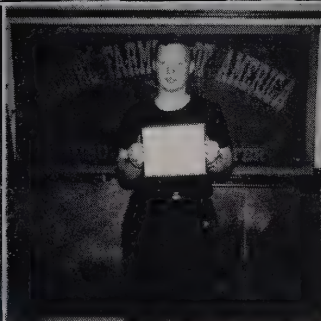

The officers of the club this year are as follows: president, B. Campbell; vice-president, J. Long; secretary-treasurer, I. Balliet; reporter, L. Shambaugh; historian, M. Purdy; parliamentarian, J. Rohm; song leader, S. Rainier; pianist, J. Rohm; candy manager, J. Potter; sponsor, Miss Helen Butler, and club mothers, Mrs. Wilbert Campbell and Mrs. Harold Boger.

First row: I. Balliet, J. Rohm, S. Rainier, B. Campbell, J. Long, L. Shambaugh, M. Purdy.

Second row: V. Hildebrandt, E. Schlegel, N. Meschberger, N. Pfefferl, G. Albright, C. Dye, S. Jones, J. Ware.

Third row: C. Meese, M. Stebing, S. Glass, B. Link, J. Potter, G. Boger, Miss Butler.

First row: K. Myers, D. Mavis, J. Snyder, Mr. Deck, D. Smith, K. Ort, E. Wittmann, J. Scott.
 Second row: H. Wirts, L. Sharp, S. Campbell, R. Thomas, R. Sherck, G. Klinger, H. Gorrell, E. Smith.
 Third row: W. Culbertson, R. Brown, D. Steffan, G. Wyne, E. Gotschall, M. Grogg, M. Peters.

Future Farmers of America

The F.F.A. is one of the oldest organizations in the high school. It is chapter number 18, one of the oldest chapters in the state. There were 26 active members this year. The meetings were held once every month. The object of the organization is to develop rural leadership, promote agricultural activities in the school and in the county, and to promote scholarship among students of vocational agriculture.

A grain judging team composed of Dale Mavis, Kenneth Ort, John Snyder, and Harold Wirts won fifth in the district judging contest at Huntington. As a result the team received a trip to the 4-H Round Up at Purdue University where it won seventh place in the state contest.

Dale Mavis was elected a junior leader and attended junior leaders' conference at Indianapolis.

The following boys were initiated into the club this year as Greenhands: Richard Brown, Bill Culbertson, Harry Gorrell, George Klinger, Max Peters, Denny Steffen, Eduard Wittmann, and Gordon Wyne. The following Greenhands were initiated Future Farmers: Sam Campbell, Jack Scott, LaVern Sharp, Edgar Smith, Delano Troyer, Kenneth Myers, and Norman Griffin.

The Auburn F.F.A. held a district banquet which was attended by F.F.A. members from 30 Northeastern Indiana F.F.A. clubs.

The elected officers are as follows: president, John Snyder; vice-president, Dale Mavis; secretary, Kenneth Ort; treasurer, Kenneth Myers; reporter, Dale Smith; adviser, Mr. Deck.

The Auburn High School Band

Can you hear the drums? Yes, here comes the Auburn High School band! The band, under the direction of Mr. Kellberg, has been a great success in the halls of A.H.S.

Mr. Kellberg entered the band in numerous marching contests. Two of them were the marching contest at Warsaw and the District Organization contest at New Haven.

In February the Solo and Ensemble contest was held at Fort Wayne with approximately 50 students attending. The first division winners then went to the State contest at Indianapolis in March. There were many winners from that contest.

On April 1 the band played host to the nationally famous Hobart High School band in the Alumni Gym. The band members were then overnight guests of the Auburn band.

Besides being in all these outside activities, the band has played in numerous programs at school. It has given many minutes of enjoyment at the football and basketball games. One of the favorite exhibitions at the football games was the Statue of Liberty. Joan Swalley, band sponsor, took the part of the statue while the band played.

The band also participated in the Christmas program at the school, and played at the 1951 Commencement exercises.

The main object of the band is to raise money for some much needed new uniforms. The members are working hard to achieve this goal.

Due to graduation, the band will lose many of its members. We certainly hope that the band will acquire new members, so it will be able to have another successful year.

First row: S. Steward, A. Nugen, P. Lung, M. Schooley, Mr. Kellberg, L. Manon, D. Souder, C. Treadwell, M. Romeiser, C. Burtzner.

Second row: B. Thomas, B. Blevins, P. Rhodes, C. Buchanan, J. Carper, B. Grogg, D. Bartels, M. Burgoyne, E. McAninch, R. Helmuth, S. Richardson.

Third row: B. Bonfield, J. Gerig, M. Kail, P. Armstrong, B. Treadwell, M. Webb, B. Link, J. Ferguson, G. Grate, H. Hoham.

The Auburn High School Chorus

Oh what a beautiful day when the girls' chorus rehearsed! Yes, each Tuesday and Thursday morning, one could hear the melodic harmony of the girls' voices floating through the halls of A.H.S.

The chorus, under the direction of Miss Ruth Daggy, is working very hard for the new robes on which the girls have their hearts set.

Many chorus member entered the Solo and Ensemble contest at Fort Wayne. Like the band, they had many winners. The Trio and the Triple Trio also entered the contest.

In April, Miss Daggy had a musical review based on songs from musical stage plays such as "Oklahoma," "South Pacific," and many others.

During this same month, the chorus held its annual Spring Concert with all the schools participating. The chorus also sang for Baccalaureate and Commencement at the graduation exercises.

The chorus has succeeded in becoming a popular group of girls in Auburn. Many of the girls will graduate this year; but we are sure that many more will join the chorus, in order that Miss Daggy will be able to have another successful year.

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association of Auburn High means as much to the girls as basketball and football do to the boys. Many girls participate in G.A.A. It is an after-school organization which requires a lot of time and cooperation, but it gives the members a chance to show what they really can do when given the opportunity.

Some of the many sports they may enter are speedball, softball, archery, bowling, swimming, volleying, badminton, and shuffleboard.

One of the main attractions of G.A.A. is the Volleyball Tournament held every year. This year Auburn was the host school. The schools participating were Angola, Columbia City, Kendallville, and, of course, Auburn. As each school brought two teams, there were approximately 120 girls, teachers, and helpers. The girls and teachers really worked hard to make the day a success. Everyone had a good time and a lot to eat.

The theme of the tourney was built around Thanksgiving. There were three courts in use all the time. There were six games played in the morning and six in the afternoon. Lunch was at 12:00 with a program following. Included in the program were J. Yoquelet, J. Barnhart, C. Hampshire, B. Seigel, C. Mitchell, and J. Mavis, leading the singing.

The tourney was a big success—especially since Auburn remained the undefeated champ again this year.

The "high light" of the year was the spring banquet. It was bright because awards for good sportsmanship, the outstanding freshman athlete, the outstanding athlete of the whole school, and next year's officers were announced. It was sad because the senior girls looked back over four wonderful years and realized that this was the last time that they would be together with the girls in G.A.A. As the last song was sung, one could see reflected in their faces all the joy, happiness, and good times had by everyone who was a member of this organization.

The officers for 1950-51 were Mary Alice Schooley, president; Virginia Picker, vice president; Alice Romeiser, secretary; and Lois Wyne, treasurer. Our faculty sponsor was Miss Van Deursen.

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club consists of those boys who have won letters in the previous year's track season, the football and basketball lettermen of the current year, and the cheerleaders. Letters are awarded on the basis of points scored in track, and the number of games played in football and basketball. Special awards of silver footballs, track shoes, and basketball letter blankets are given to seniors.

The "50" track squad received awards at an assembly program on May 18, 1950. Letters were presented to the following boys: J. Blevins, S. Butler, J. Goings, J. Griffith, D. Michael, R. Predmore, J. Scott, R. Seigel, L. Stemen, and D. Kelly, who was student manager. The seniors on the track team who received silver track shoes were as follows: B. Beers, D. Lochner, T. Miller, L. Refner, R. Wertenberger, and M. Reynolds.

On November 16, 1950, the football awards were presented to the members of the football team, which this year tied for the N.E.I.C. championship. C. Grosscup, J. Scott, R. Delegrange, L. Sharp, L. Knisely, D. Johnson, M. Grogg, H. Hayden, F. Bauer, H. Gorrell, J. Capen, D. Timberlin, D. Michael, and D. Morris were awarded letters; and S. Butler, J. Garns, P. Hathaway, R. Riddle, J. Griffith, C. Derrow, C. Hampshire, H. Wirts, L. Stemen, J. Snyder, P. Fribley, D. Richardson, D. Predmore, and D. Feagler were presented silver footballs. Harold Hayden received a manager's letter.

The basketball awards were presented April 13, 1951. S. Butler, J. Garns, J. Griffith, C. Grosscup, P. Hathaway, L. Stemen, D. Michael, J. Blevins, W. Myers, R. Delegrange, and J. Capen received letter awards; and J. Blevins, S. Butler, J. Garns, J. Griffith, W. Myers, P. Hathaway, and L. Stemen received senior letter blankets. Carolyn Mitchell, Rebecca Lemish, and Barbara Blevins were presented well earned yell letters, and Calvin Hampshire received a manager's letter.

Teen-Y

Teen-Y, composed of freshmen and sophomore girls, elected Joan Copeland, president; Sue Baxter, vice-president; Marilyn West, secretary; Myrna Funke, treasurer; Marsha Minard, sergeant-at-arms; Ann Nugen, chaplain. They chose Mrs. George Baxter and Mrs. Wayne Armstrong as their sponsors for the year.

These girls held their meetings the first and third Mondays of each month at 7:30 at the YMCA.

On October 4, they sent their officers to Garrett for the annual officers' meeting. Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y also attended.

On December 2, the Teen-Y held its candy sale. The girls also had a paper drive the latter part of the year. As their Christmas project, they sent clothing to the Fort Wayne orphanage.

We should all compliment the Teen-Y Club on a job well done and wish it luck in the coming year.

The Devils' Journal

This was the third year for "The Devils' Journal" and, as in the past, there were several new additions. A crossword puzzle page and also a page featuring faculty personalities were added at the beginning of the year. Our school paper was published every two weeks and contained an average of ten pages. It cost the readers five cents per copy.

The main staff consisted of Charlotta Sellew, editor-in-chief; Jinny Picker, assistant editor; Calvin Hampshire, business manager; Don Johnson, art editor; Jeannette Beers, Peggy Krick, and David Feagler, organization editors; Carolyn Mitchell, gossip editor; Charlotte Treadwell and Diana Messenger, proof readers; Bill Myers, athletic editor; Steve Butler and Richard Predmore, humor editors; Kesler Teter, layout; Lois Wyne, head typist; Becky Lemish, head printer; Sally Dragoo, secretary. The faculty sponsor was Miss Dawson. In addition to the main staff, there were many other A.H.S. students who wrote articles regularly for the paper.

The staff had its problems but managed to solve them to everyone's satisfaction. Many students were thrilled to see their stories, poems, essays, and opinions in print; and each of these contributions made our paper very representative of the entire student body and were the chief factors which brought it success.

The Librarians

Whether it's a cabinet member during Jefferson's administration to be named, an essay to be written for freshman English, the biography of an author to be given for a sophomore book report, or a blank to be filled in a civics or economics workbook, help can easily be found if you ask one of our 13 librarians or assistants. Under Miss Dawson's supervision, these girls have learned to find even the most elusive book for any troubled member of Auburn High.

Our librarians have a great responsibility. Not only must they know where each book is, but they must also attend to all books and magazines which are signed out.

In addition to all the reference books, our school library has an abundant number of magazines, English dictionaries, foreign dictionaries, maps, and almanacs. As it is with the aid of these books that students get much of their school work, they should be very proud of their school library.

"George Washington Slept Here"

The 1950 junior-senior play, "George Washington Slept Here," was well presented by Miss Thelma Lewerenz November 1, 2, and 3 in the high school auditorium. A large crowd was present at each performance. The play showed long hours of hard work on the part of all connected with it. Miss Winterfeldt and her crew are also to be commended for their splendid sets.

The scenes of the play centered around an old colonial farm house which Newton Fuller had bought, sight unseen.

As the play opened, he and his wife, Annabelle, who did not seem to share Newton's enthusiasm for the house, were inspecting the no more than run down shack. Nevertheless, the Fullers and their friends started cleaning and making the necessary repairs.

Annabelle's love for the house was by no means increased by Mr. Kimber, the hilarious caretaker, or by Mr. Prescott, the neighbor who not only owned the road to their house, but who owned the water facilities as well. When Newton told her Uncle Stanley, a fussy rich uncle, was coming, things became impossible.

As the play progressed, Madge, the Fullers' daughter, fell in love with a local actor, her four guests were bored with a rainy week end, and the farm bills became so plentiful they resorted to asking Newton's Uncle Stanley for the money. Uncle Stanley only announced he had lost his fortune back in 1929, and since then he had been living off his relatives.

Then the tide began to change. A map of the farm was found which proved that the road and well, which all thought belonged to Mr. Prescott, really belonged to the Fullers. Mr. Prescott was deflated, and the curtain rang down with none less than an earthquake.

The Gitta Sereny Club

This is the fourth year for the Gitta Sereny Club in A.H.S. and again it has met with success.

The officers for '50-'51 were: John Garns, president; Janet Yoquelet, vice-president; Fred Bauer, secretary; and Jerry Griffith, treasurer.

The club members carry on correspondence with boys and girls of other countries. This organization has adopted two schools in Austria. At the beginning of the year, Gitta Sereny members sent two "Care" packages to their two adopted schools. Later they sponsored a clothing drive for less fortunate children in other countries. They also sent another "Care" package during the last semester of the year.

All the members of this international correspondence organization wish to extend their thanks to Miss Carol Dawson who, as sponsor, helped make it such a success.

Auburn Athletic Association

Almost every student in Auburn High School is a member of the Auburn Athletic Association. The reason is very apparent as the requirements for membership are simple. The club includes members of football, basketball, and track squads, yell leaders, managers of the three sports, band members, and season ticket holders.

The A.A.A. was organized to promote school spirit and to interest more students in the activities of the school. There are frequent pep sessions during the year, and very often "Randy" and "Zeke" turn on their charm as public speakers for the benefit of the students.

The student body chose Steve Butler as president of the Athletic Association and Mary Alice Schooley as secretary. Harold Hayden and Jim Reynolds served in the capacity of football manager and statistician.

Don Kelly was manager of the "50" track squad, "Buck" Hampshire and LaVern Sharp were the basketball manager and statistician, respectively.

Carolyn Mitchell, Rebecca Lemish, and Barbara Blevins were elected as yell leaders for the "50" and "51" sports seasons. They were very successful in bringing out the enthusiasm of the student body.

Football 1950

"Zeke" Young's 27th season as coach of the Auburn Red Devils started on a hot August 15, when 60 boys turned out for the first practice. Practices were held from 8:30 to 10:30 in the mornings and 5:30 to 7:30 in the evenings. "Zeke" was very ably assisted by Coach "Randy" Lawson and Gerald Weiler, who is the A.H.S. shop instructor.

Among the returning lettermen were Steve Butler, Charles Derrow, John Garns, Jerry Griffith, Max Grogg, Cal Grosscup, Paul Hathaway, Dave Michael, Richard Predmore, Dave Richardson, Jack Scott, LaVern Sharp, and Dave Timberlin. Around these boys Mr. Young built his fifth consecutive conference championship team. The position of little honor and much work, that of manager, was very capably filled by Harold Hayden. Jim Reynolds acted in capacity of statistician and spotter.

The Red Devils showed promise of a powerful football machine in their opener on September 8 against Decatur. The Red Devils pushed across a touchdown in each quarter and defeated Decatur 27-6. Decatur succeeded in getting a touchdown in the last quarter. Lyle Stemen accounted for three of the four Auburn touchdowns while the fourth was scored by a pass from Jerry Griffith to big Cal Grosscup.

Auburn just squeezed by New Haven with a score of 12-6. Both New Haven and Auburn had a touchdown nullified and time ran out as New Haven was desperately trying to score from inside Auburn's 10 yard stripe. The defensive play of the Auburn line was the outstanding factor of success for the Red Devils. Paul Hathaway and Jerry Griffith scored the two Auburn touchdowns.

The game at Bluffton proved to be a sorry day for the Red Devils as Bluffton upset the Auburn applecart 12-9 as a last quarter desperation drive fell short of the Bluffton goal by about one foot. It was the first time in twelve years that Bluffton had been able to eke out a win over Auburn. Paul Hathaway went over for the lone Auburn score.

The highly touted Hartford City Airedales came to town on September 29, and the Red Devils promptly showed them that Auburn was no push-over. The Airedales managed to carry home a 14-12 victory but had to play all-out ball to do it. The Airedales had been unscored upon until Paul Hathaway and Cal Grosscup crossed their goal.

Auburn downed the Concordia Cadets 25-19 in a see-saw scoring battle that saw many long runs and a wide open brand of ball that the fans love to see. Grosscup scored twice, and Hathaway and Griffith each once to round out Auburn's scoring.

The Red Devils ground out single touchdowns in each of the second, third, and fourth quarters to down the Columbia City Eagles 21-13. Auburn started the second half with a 13-7 deficit but fought its way from behind to win the much coveted victory over the Eagles. Stemen, Timberlin, and Michael accounted for the three Auburn scores, and Jim Capen kicked all three extra points.

The Warsaw Tigers received a surprise when the Auburn eleven struck hard and fast to knock them out of first place in the N.E.I.C. and throw the conference into a three-way tie. The Auburn line again demonstrated its uncanny defensive play that was a thorn in Warsaw's side all evening. Hathaway and Timberlin bagged one apiece, and Grosscup a pair for a 27-0 victory.

The Auburn Red Devils won a share of the N.E.I.C. crown by drubbing the Garrett Railroaders 54-12. Almost everyone scored but the water boy as Hathaway accounted for two touchdowns, and Michael, Grosscup, Delegrange, Timberlin, Butler, and Stemen all crossed the Railroaders goal.

Auburn ended its season with a 25-6 victory over the Royerton Redbirds. Three of the Auburn scores were pushed across in the last quarter, and the game was closer than the final score indicates. Griffith, Michael, Stemen, and Grosscup scored the Red Devils' touchdowns.

The year's football season showed seven victories and two defeats. Auburn for the fifth consecutive year obtained a share of the N.E.I.C. championship.

When the All Conference teams were chosen, Charles Derrow and Calvin Hampshire were given first team honors. Grosscup, Wirts, and Hathaway were placed on the second team. Butler, Garns, and Griffith received honorable mention.

On November 16, the much coveted football awards were presented to the football players earning them. Those receiving letter awards were Cal Grosscup, Jack Scott, Bob Delegrange, LaVern Knisely, Don Johnson, Max Grogg, Fred Bauer, Harry Gorrell, Jim Capen, Dave Timberlin, David Michael, LaVern Sharp, Dwight Morris, and Harold Hayden received a manager's letter. The following seniors received silver footballs as senior awards: Steve Butler, John Garns, Paul Hathaway, Bob Riddle, Jerry Griffith, Charles Derrow, Calvin Hampshire, Harold Wirts, Lyle Stemen, John Snyder, Pete Fibley, Dave Richardson, Dick Predmore, and David Feagler.

Basketball

The 1950-51 edition of the Auburn Red Devils developed into one of the finest basketball teams in the history of Auburn High. Coached by "Randy" Lawson, the Red Devils turned in a fine season's record of 14 wins against six losses, but ascended to even greater heights in the I.H.S.A.A. Elimination Basketball Tourney. The fighting Red Devils carried Auburn's colors to the final game of the Kokomo Semi-Finals before being eliminated by the Muncie Central Bearcats. The Auburnites showed a knack of winning the tough games and losing the easy ones all season long. They showed this trait right down to the wire when in the Kokomo Semi-Finals they upset the favored Marion Giants in the afternoon tilt only to lose in the final frame to Muncie Central.

When preliminary practices were over and the final cuts had been made, the ten varsity berths were filled by Calvin Grosscup, John Garns, Steve Butler, Paul Hathaway, Jerry Griffith, William Myers, Jerry Blevins, David Michael, Lyle Stemen, and Robert Seigel. An injury kept Jerry Blevins out of the final games, and Bob Seigel chose to quit before the season ended. Robert Delegrange and James Capen were moved up from the Imps to fill these spots during the final 12 games of the season which included the eight tournament games. "Buck" Hampshire was chosen student manager, and LaVern Sharp was selected as statistician.

The Red Devils gave warning of things to come when they opened the season with a smashing victory over the Ashley Aces. The final score read 71-55 and was a heart warming victory as Ashley was considered the powerhouse of the DeKalb county quintets.

The Butler Windmills next felt the horns of the Auburn Red Devils, falling before the Red & Black onslaught 64-43. Concordia also proved an easy mark as Auburn romped over the Cadets 63-35.

The Red Devils racked up their fourth consecutive victory by whipping the South Side Archers 54-48. In the first conference game of the season, the New Haven Bulldogs pulled a surprise stall from their bag of tricks and upset the Red Devils 21-17. The following night the North Side Red Skins capitalized on Auburn's frustration and eked out a one point victory over the Auburn five 44-43.

Auburn climbed back into the victory column by turning back the Garrett Railroaders 69-43. The Hartford City Airedales faltered in the final stages of the following game, and the Red Devils came home on the long end of a 61-54 score.

In the annual holiday tourney, which was held this year at Auburn, the Red Devils defeated the Kendallville Comets 56-52 in the afternoon tilt before being upset in the final game by the Nappanee Bulldogs 48-46.

The Red Devils started the New Year out right by dropping the Angola Hornets 43-35. They then displayed an unbeatable brand of basketball as they outclassed the highly touted Elkhart Blue Blazers 51-49.

The Kendallville Comets avenged their earlier holiday tourney defeat by edging the Red Devils 38-37. The Warsaw Tigers failed to dent the Auburn attack, but went down fighting 65-55. The Decatur Yellow Jackets met the same fate 67-54. This victory, however, proved a costly one as Jerry Blevins dislocated his shoulder and was unable to play for the remainder of the season. "Do it for Blevins" became the Auburn war cry, and on the night following Jerry's accident, an Auburn team beat the Mishawaka Cavemen for the first time in history. The final score was 49-47.

The Columbia City Eagles, who knocked Auburn out of the conference race last year, felt the wrath of vengeance as they fell before a 71-37 onslaught.

The Red Devils met the Fort Wayne Central Tigers on one of those nights when they just couldn't buy a basket and fell in defeat 56-48. Auburn then slipped by the Wabash Apaches 49-45 before another of those off nights journeyed along with the Red and Black to Bluffton. When the smoke cleared, Bluffton had destroyed all hope of Auburn's winning the Conference by cutting down the Auburn Red Devils 48-44 in the final game of the season.

Auburn breezed through its own sectional tourney, defeating Ashley 94-50, Fremont, 58-50, Orland 83-38, and Spencerville 61-43 to advance to the Fort Wayne Regional. Here they were paired with the Central Tigers in the first game of the day. The Red Devils avenged an earlier season defeat by out-rebounding, out-driving, and out-shooting the Central congregation 50-45. In the evening tilt, Auburn out-scored the Decatur Yellow Jackets 76-61 to advance to the Kokomo Semi-Finals for the third consecutive year. Here the Red Devils met the Marion Giants who had eliminated them last year in the Semi-Finals. Auburn quickly avenged this defeat by upsetting the favored Giants 57-41. In the evening frame the Red Devils failed to play the brand of ball they had been displaying and were eliminated by the Muncie Central Bearcats 53-39. Before the Red Devils were eliminated, however, they advanced the second farthest of any Auburn basketball team in the I.H.S.A.A. Basketball Tourney. One more game would have tied the 1949 team's record.

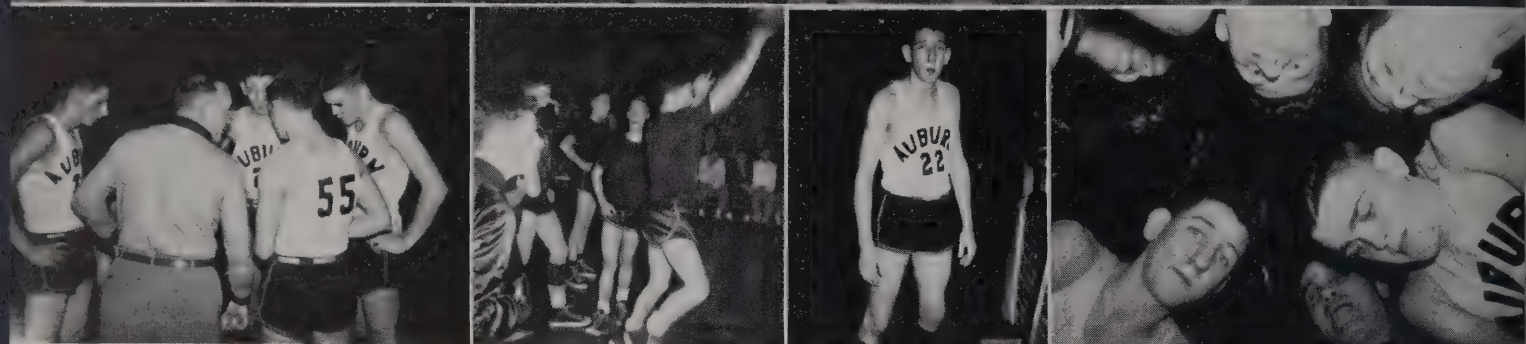

Auburn placed Cal Grosscup on the N.E.I.C. All-Star first team and Bill Myers and Steve Butler on the second team. Cal was elected to the number one spot on the first team and Bill received more votes than any other member of the second team.

Cal Grosscup, Bill Myers, and Steve Butler were placed on the All-Regional first team, and Paul Hathaway and John Garns were placed on the second team.

On the All-Semi-Final team Cal Grosscup was placed on a first team by three sports writers, Bill Myers by two, and Steve Butler by one. When Bill and Steve were not chosen for first team honors, they were placed on the second five.

On April 13 the basketball awards were presented by Coach Lawson at an assembly of the student body. Those seniors receiving letter blankets were Jerry Blevins, John Garns, Jerry Griffith, Bill Myers, Lyle Stemen, Paul Hathaway, and Steve Butler. The following underclassmen received letter awards: Cal Grosscup, Bob Delegrange, Dave Michael, and James Capen. Calvin Hampshire received a manager's letter.

First row: G. Grate, L. Dean, L. Hinschlager, H. Winebrenner, D. Souder, J. Shaw, L. Grimm, A. Myers.

Second row: Mr. Young, D. Houghton, T. Reynolds, D. McGriff, B. Webb, J. Capen, R. Delegrange, P. Muzzillo, L. Rank.

The Imps

The Auburn Imps, coached by "Zeke" Young, emerged from the 1950-1951 basketball season with a record of 17 wins and three losses. This year's reserve team was one of the best Auburn has ever had. Ask the opposition if you have any doubts.

The Imps started the season in a ball of fire, rolling up five consecutive wins before tasting defeat. They defeated the Ashley Deuces 48-36 on their home court before traveling to Butler and Concordia to top the Butler Injuns 48-32 and down the Concordia Reserves 46-31.

Coming back home, the Imps defeated South Side 34-18 and then journeyed to New Haven to trounce the Bullpups 34-14.

The North Side Papooses handed the Imps their first defeat 36-33, but the Auburn Reserves dropped the Garrett Handcars 44-21 and the Hartford City Pups 43-28 to start a new string of victories.

The Imps breezed past the Angola Bees 40-25 and then took a close one from the Elkhart Reserves 26-22.

The Imps defeated the Kendallville Meteors 39-28 and drubbed the Warsaw Cubs 34-25 before traveling to Logansport to participate in a blind tourney. They breezed past Flora in the afternoon but fell before Logansport's Reserves in the finals 36-33. This defeat snapped a seven-game winning streak.

The Imps drubbed the Decatur Reserves 50-29 and trounced the Mishawaka Caveboys 59-25 in their next two games.

The Auburn Reserves dropped the Columbia City Reserves 37-24 before suffering their final defeat at the hands of the Central Tiger Cubs 34-30.

In their final two games the Imps defeated the Wabash Papooses 34-31 and the Bluffton Tiger Cubs 49-24.

Noon League

Noon League was organized to provide intra-mural basketball for those boys who care to participate. It is under the supervision of Coach "Zeke" Young. Early in November the captains were selected by "Zeke," and the teams were chosen.

The following boys were chosen as captains: John Snyder, Jack Scott, Richard Predmore, David Timberlin, Max Grogg, and Calvin Hampshire. Richard Predmore picked up David Feagler along the way as coach and went on to win the championship.

The games provided entertainment for all the students as well as furnishing recreation for the boys.

The members of the championship team were Richard Predmore, captain, Jack Wappes, John Kleeman, James Seigel, Dave Swartz, Spanky Fox, Harry Hoham, and John Goings.

The results of the season were as follows:

Team	Won	Lost
Predmore	15	5
Scott	14	6
Timberlin	9	14
Snyder	9	14
Hampshire	7	13
Grogg	6	14

Track 1950

On March 20, 1950, 57 candidates answered "Zeke" Young's annual call for prospects to make up his 1950 track squad. Rain and floods kept the Auburn hopefuls off the track, and practices were held in the gym.

Without ever practicing on a track, the Red Devils traveled to Kendallville and handed the Comets a $76\frac{1}{3}$ to $32\frac{2}{3}$ shellacking. The Red and Black victory came as a result of 10 blue ribbons and a tie for an 11th one.

The "Youngmen" nosed out the Butler Windmills 57-52 in their second dual meet of the year. Auburn needed only one of the relay events to stay out in front. They got both but were disqualified in the half-mile relay to allow Butler to come closer.

The Auburn Red Devils breezed through a 76-47 victory over the Concordia Cadets. The Red Devils eked out nine blue ribbons to substantiate their margin of victory.

The Red Devils carried the Red and Black to the annual Goshen Relays and came home with a third place in some of the toughest competition in the state. Muncie Burris and Columbia City were the two schools that topped Auburn's performance.

Auburn quickly tasted the sweetness of victory again by outclassing the Garrett Railroaders $81\frac{1}{2}$ to $35\frac{1}{2}$ in a dual meet held at Earl Carr Memorial Field. The "Youngmen" scored firsts in all but one event to build up their huge margin of victory.

For the second year in a row, Auburn was nosed out of first place in the Kokomo Relays. Warsaw beat Auburn in the final event to carry away first laurels. However, the Red Devils put on a showing of which their school can well be proud.

The Auburn Red Devils again settled for second best in the North Eastern Indiana Conference as Columbia City copped first place on its own track. A victory in the last event could have thrown the meet to Auburn, but Columbia City won that event and took home the beautiful trophy.

Blevins and Michael placed in the sectional and qualified to compete in the regional, but here the competition proved too much for them to qualify for state honors.

On May 18, 1950, the following boys received letter awards: Barnell Beers, Jerry Blevins, Steve Butler, John Goings, Jerry Griffith, Dick Lochner, Dave Michael, Ted Miller, Richard Predmore, Larry Refner, Jack Scott, Robert Seigel, Lyle Stemen, Roger Wertenberger, and Don Kelly, manager. Max Reynolds, Barnell Beers, Dick Lochner, Ted Miller, Larry Refner, and Roger Wertenberger received silver track shoes as senior awards for their participation on the track team.

Senior Wills

I, Ilene Balliet, will to most anyone my most dreaded and unhappy hours in civics class.

I, David Barnhart, will my civics book to Sam Campbell.

I, Gordon Baughman, will to Harvey Penland my blond curly hair.

I, Darrel Billings, will to Bob Delegrange all my empty pop bottles.

I, Jerry Blevins, being of sound mind, will to "Clem" Grosscup my ability to get along with the teachers.

I, Pat Brady, will to Janet Yoquelet my silver friendship ring which she has had her eye on. May it match her silver bracelet.

I, Judy Brown, do hereby will to Bette Roth my ability to keep my mouth shut in classes or talk only when the teacher's back is turned.

I, Steven Butler, will my football helmet to Jim Capen in hopes that he too may have the privilege of having orange hair for a while.

I, Sharon Cochran, will to Carole Carmer my dirty Kleenex in case of a paper shortage.

I, Shirley DeLucenay, will my dirty playing in basketball to Judy Hurni.

I, Charles Darrow, will to Fred Bauer all my home work and even my chair in civics class. Have fun, Fred.

I, David Feagler, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my "lightning" speed on the football gridiron to Dwight "Tiny" Morris.

I, Peter Fribley, will my ability to eat in assembly to Dwight Morris. He looks hungry.

I, Dolores Foster, will to "Carrie Mae" my naturally curly hair and to Jeanette Beers my ability to play "clean" basketball.

I, Jeanne Frank, will all the hours that I studied civics to my sister, Jane.

I, John Garns, will to "Buzz Bomb" Sharp my remarkable ability in handling a 16 gauge automatic shotgun.

I, Jerry Griffith, will all my extra hair to "Zeke" Young, who at 39 needs some.

I, Beverly Grogg, will my ability to get to advanced business class on time to any junior who likes to talk as much as I do.

I, Ginger Grogg, will my ability to fall down while playing volleyball to anyone who likes to get her shorts dirty.

I, Calvin Hampshire, will to any junior my ability to keep awake in economics class on Monday mornings.

I, Paul Hathaway, will my hip pads to Dwight Morris. They will make good knee guards.

I, Rita Helmuth, will to my sister, Mary, my ability to get up at 6 a.m. and study for civics tests.

I, Barbara King, will to anyone who may need it my ability to stay loyal to Auburn after being gone three years!

I, Peggy Krick, will to Tommy Krick my ability to get straight D's for two years from Mr. Weathers.

I, Nancy Krueger, will my "Follies" trials and tribulations to "Jinny" Picker.

I, Becky Lemish, will my "immaculately clean" locker to Janet Yoquelet.

I, Jeanette Long, will to my sister my ability always to be on time.

I, Dale Mavis, will the excess muscle in my left arm to DuWayne Stemen.

I, Eugene Mavis, will all of my happy hours in Mr. Weathers' classes to anyone who can take it.

I, Jean Mavis, will to Sue Zook my ability to get into trouble in chorus class.

I, Nancy Meschberger, will to Norma Jean Baker my ability to play a "clean" game of basketball.

I, Diana Messenger, will all my notes written to the basketball manager to this year's "Imps," who have read most of them, in part, at practices!

I, Carolyn Mitchell, in stable frame of mind, do hereby bequeath to "Dabby" Bartels my badly beaten man catchers in hopes that she will have more success than I.

I, Bill Myers, will all my civics and economics notes and questions to Mr. Weathers' waste basket.

I, Kenneth Ort, will to Dale Smith the fun I had while absent from civics class.

I, Kareen Ott, will my ability to get the car to my brother, who is finally old enough to get a driver's license.

I, Dick Predmore, sadly will my collection of nut shells, apple cores, candy and gum wrappers and sandwich papers in seat L-8 in assembly to "Mouse" Strauss.

I, Jim Reynolds, will to those who will to me what they have left to will, my congratulations.

I, David Richardson, will to any underclassman my many pleasant extra hours with Mr. Miller.

I, Eric Schaab, of doubtful mind, hilariously bequeath my uproarious bursts of garrulous laughter to Bette Roth.

I, Mary Alice Schooley, will my ability to catch on to jokes to anyone dense enough to want it.

I, Robert Seigel, will the whole high school to any unsuspecting freshman who doesn't know what he is getting into.

I, Charlotta Sellev, will to David Schooley my outstanding ability in mathematics, especially in solid geometry.

I, Barbara Shaw, will to Don Souder my ability to get along with redheads.

I, Jack Smith, will my ability to take notes in civics class to "Butch" Webb.

I, John Snyder, in sound mind, will my ability to keep awake in W D class to any underclassman.

I, Sharon Sprott, will to Barbara Blevins my ability to get into trouble in Mr. Weathers' class.

I, Lyle Stemen, will my football uniform to anyone who can find enough tape to put it back together.

I, Joan Swalley, will my job as band sponsor to some unsuspecting person.

I, Charlotte Treadwell, will to Barbara Blevins and Ardella James all my "old" high school flames.

I, Darrel Warner, will my ability to cut up in band to Dave Schooley.

I, Sara Wineland, will my ability to get along with Mr. Weathers to "Sandy" Timbrook.

I, Harold Wirts, will "Fisherman" Young my ability to catch fish.

I, Marilyn Wurm, will to Virginia Walters my gym shoes since she needs some so badly.

I, Lois Wyne, will to any unsuspecting junior the worries and headaches as head typist of the newspaper.

I, Earl Yarbrough, will my ability to be kicked out of noon league games to Harry Hoham.

Priceless

NOTORIOUS GANG CAUGHT RED-HANDED!

Blood Flows in Thrilling Round-Up of Arch-Killers

AUBURN—The Auburn Police Detective department today reported a successful capture of our fair metropolis' most notorious and feared gang of criminals. The picture at the right, snapped by our candid camera, shows the four arch-criminals leaving the scene of their dastardly crime with the spoils of war.

These public enemies No. 6923, 1037½, and 6¾ entered the Junction's Gentlemen's Bank, which has a capital of $49.95, at approximately 4:10 PDQ (CST) and left in due time with the enormous sum of $2.42¾ and two blank checks. They left a powerful sedan at the curb with the motor running and nuts and bolts dropping from the engine from time to time.

The killers, identified as "Guns Garns," "Lucky Butler," and "Jab Blevins," were chased by Sheriff "Peanut Schwartz." "Gritty Sands," king of Salem Center's underworld and leader of this gang, was killed. The king is dead. Long live the king!

These well known members of the underworld, after terrorizing the bank tellers with loaded water pistols, were captured by the alert(?) police force who immediately set the cogs of organized protection in motion. "Guns" and "Lucky" were captured, but "Jab" escaped with blood dropping from his finger where he was stuck with a sliver while leaning on the counter.

It is believed that "Jab" may have gone to the underworld hide-out of his gun molls, "Brownie" and "Birdie," "Tick's Pilsner Parlor."

FOR SALE—A baby carriage in good condition, cheap. Going out of business.

"Jab Blevins," "Guns Garns," "Lucky Butler," and "Peanuts Swartz."

MYSTERY ON URBAN AVE.

AUBURN—Numerous reports received by the Auburn night patrol indicate strange visitors to Urban Avenue. License numbers 95, 165, 903, 701, and 355 are among the suspects. Regarded as the most dangerous is the red Ford bearing the number 701 from which, the eavesdropping patrol stated, issued descriptions of assorted pistol and rifle calibers, muzzle velocities, etc. The other suspected autos were silent, possibly indicating even more evil doings.

CORRECTION

In the last edition of "The Blade" we made the statement: "Auburn High School owes its high standards of education to its inefficient teaching force." Of course, we meant . . . "its efficient teaching farce."

PREVIOUSLY CLOSED CASE IS SOLVED BY FAMOUS CHEMIST

The Auburn Police announced today that a highly involved case which has baffled our fair city for two years was unraveled and cleverly brought to light by Doctor Frederick Bauer, D.D.T., P.D.Q., yesterday.

On the dismal, foggy morning of March 6, 1950, a terribly mangled body was discovered on the junction railroad tracks by "Emmet" Sharp, one of Auburn's noted big game hunters. The job of identification was immediately undertaken by the Grosscup, Haggarty & Magoo Detective Agency, well known for its undying perseverance. Though they worked diligently night and day for 18 months, they made virtually no headway and finally gave up without even determining whether it was male or female, let alone who the disfigured corpse was.

After a lapse of six months, that eminent scientist and friend of the working girl, Frederick Bauer, tackled the task with his usual untiring vigor, and, in "Doc" Rose's modern laboratory and with the help of his able assistant, Miss Butler, pathological history was made when his shrewd analysis concluded that the "body" was undoubtedly a discarded batch of waffle batter from the westbound B. & O. train.

MANAGER Jim Reynolds of the Kort Theatre announces that he has been able to secure the Siegfried Follies. This will interest Auburnites, for the Misses "Birdie" Sprott, "Chattanooga" Chapman, and "Osculating" Ott are members of this company.

ARE YOU A MENTAL WIZARD?

Doctors Swalley and Schaab have, after much research, compiled this exam to test your knowledge. The time allotted for each question is in the parenthesis preceding it. The score rating is as follows: Count ten for each answer correct. If your score is 150 you are a genius, e.g., each Soph belongs to the canine genius, a la biology.

If your score is 140, you are superior, and belong to the group known as Seniors, upon whose ability the world runs.

If your score is 120, you are an average American of normal intelligence; that is, there are just as many smarter than you as there are dumber.

If your score is 100 you are below normal — like Cal's car.

If your score is 90 you are a moron — e.g., I love her moron more each day.

If your score is 70 or under, you are an idiot, and will eat your lunch in a car when the temperature is zero.

PREAMBLE TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE AMERICAN LEGION

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the Great Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.
